

The CHRISTMAS "WAR CRY" IN AN HOSPITAL WARD

At a Great Welcome Home, The General Speaks of Canada.

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Signal Headquarters: 107 Queen Victoria St., London, EC.

TORONTO, DECEMBER 27, 1913.

David M. Feer, Communicate.

Price Five Cents.

His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught,
WHO DESCRIBED HIS VISIT TO THE ARMY'S INSTITUTIONS IN MONTREAL AS "A POSITIVE SERMON IN PHILANTHROPY." (See Page a.)

"NO WASHING IN HEAVEN." By Mrs. Staff-Captain Arnold. "No washin' in hivin?" sez Biddy to Pat,
"Now plivat is The Giniral manin' boi that?
Ofve washed till ine finghers are blisthered an' sore

O've washed till me highers are distincted an sore to kept the ould wolf, rolght away from the door. Wholle you, Pat (bad luck to yez), sit on yer sate wid yer dirthy ould pipe, and a slitcol fer yer fate. No washin' in high? Indade it is me Will be glad whin the lastib bit o' washin' Oi sec.

Will be glad whin the lasth bit o' washin' Oi see, They're wearin' whoite robes over there, too, they say; An' shure Oi'd be washin' yers, Pat, iwiry day, Fancy you frum yer hed to yer fate all in whoite, An' wid a black poipe, now ye wind be a soight."

An' wid a black police, now ye wind be a soight."

Ouch, Biddy, deary don't be so hard on yer Pat.
He's yer own inear husban' ye konow fer all that;
If ye'd laithen to phwat the good Giniral seal,
An' not think up all yer ould washin' insted;
He shpake of the washin'd away up our sin.
In must be dun here or we wid out git la;
Ouch, Biddy, dear; O'm a poor sinful crayther
(An' ye're no heether thin Ol hev hin nayther), Free, Biddy, me darfulry, mon learn an' wio hand,
Let's shtart us togither fer that birvinly land,
An' here's mon jopb, Ol wild break it in two,
Ver washin' is din, it's a biddy yell be,
O'll cam a good livin' fer you an' fer me;

O'll cam a good livin' fer you au' fer me; An' shure while The Glutral knass back nixt year. It's Patrick on' Biddy will wilkum him here."

CHACKE

and Love in a Log House.

ENG Gideon To accompanied by his good wife and some of their younger children made the great venture ward across the Atlantic, such personally-conflucted ward organization and had been also as a personal second and the s

the deliver to totally different cir-mentances.

Sdf-reliant men and women, whose chauttess spirits had learned to scorn delights and live faborious day, they had loved the sweet, clean life of the open country in the old hone; the ture of the crowded stid, hone; the ture of the crowded stid, heavely lacing the trials and perils of a low to the four the longer and expectation of the hone; the country lacing the stide of a low for the longer and expectation of the delivery lacing the longer and expectation of the delivery prepared.

out with the nope and expectation of breaking new country, prepared therefully to endure it not to ending the londinesses and hardships that are not adrogather inseparable from the settler's life even in these days of many inventions for domestic comforts. But we write now conditions over sixty years ago. And sturily those settlers were! In physical stature Grandina.

In physical stature Grandma was small and write, rather than tall and robust, as Gideon, by way of contrast, certainly was. But her indominate spirit made up for anything that might have been wanting in her budily powers af endurance.

ance.
"He shall not go!" declared Grandma with unusual vigour and determination.
Their son John had already left

Their son John had already left the cosy home—an ivy-covered cot-tage in the picturesque valley of the Esk. He was growing ambitious to see the world, and the "postic" had that morning, on one of his irregular visits to the coltage, brought a letter from Edinburgh to say that

John was about to embark on a sail-ing vessel for Greenland. Father was able to regard the matter with something like the philosophic calm something like the philosophic calm of a typical 'Seets elder, but to mother the news was a shock too terrible to contemplate. "He shall mot go—171 no let him sail; no, not if I have to walk all the way to Leith to stop him!"—she again declared.

On its long and rumbling journey

On its long and rimming journeys through the Border country to Edinbergh, of which Leith is the port, the old stage coach passed, once a day, within a mile or two of Gideon's home; but it had already gone, and to wait until the morrow would mean that John would be gone, too, on this still longer jour-ner. So lolin's mother, the brave simel of mother-love; walked the long sixty miles to Leith to stop her son sailing for Grecoland! How she did it no one can say, but the plucky level is still-recounted with Curling, NAA. No.

On December and five souls cause to Go! Since Captain and Mrs.

age of Gideon L. resoand of Glocon 12, leso-hately accepted the only alternative; alone this frail-looking, nervous won-man, impelled by the wonderful in-stinct of mother-love; walked the gather.

In the presence of such an appeal

In the presence of such an appeal what would any son have done? John also accepted the ineritable. The sight of his mother, travel-stained and almost bootless after her long walk, touched him to the heart. "I'll not go to Greenland for anyone now," he said, and giving her a sovereign (five dollars) sent his mother home by the stage coach mother home by the stage conext day.

Mother returned triumphant.

That was just like her.
But it must also be admitted that fominess for her children sometimes turned her from her original intertion, and it is recalled that Johnnie, who was not, in the days his youth, altogether enamoured "hook-larning," would some-pride wherever her descendants fore- "Graudfather answered the door. and greeted him in very matter-of-fact words. The young fellow tried to make free with him, supposing the old gentleman to be ignorant of what had happened. But Grandfather was unfelouting.

"'I suppose you'll let me in, Uncle?" asked the young man at unt' reulied the Grandlather: 'vou have brought disgrace upon your father and mother and upon the whole family, and I don't know that Lought to take you in

"He was certainly not prepared to receive him under talse pretences.

"Grandlather was indeed partieular in everything-in himself, in per-sonal appearance, in his home, with

In the fong winter evenings he would read alond while Grannie sat times win against his mother, when, his children, in his work on the his children, in his work on the farm, and in the gratien-every-where."

"Int Grandma was of a very win-ning disposition," says one of her granddaughters. She too, was very particular, thow spotlessly olean for instance, she kept the home! She was especially ioud of flowers, and she and Grandfather had the prottiest Bower garden roundabout. "She was a very kind woman, too. times win against his mother, when, refusing to go to sebool, he would threaten to "still the Tectori." To cross the river was a short on frimn home to school, but the Tector is frequently in spate, and Mother al-ways releated when Johnnie archly used this his "last eard!" ways releated when Johnnie archly used this his "last earl." How Joveable and attractive Grannie was! "Grandfather," says one of the grandchildren, "was al-most stern and forbidding, or per-haps I onight to say he was a very precise and particular man—through hald through a Prebyterian of the prettiest Bourer parcher round about the many two kind woman, too. The man are key kind woman, too. The man and loved here. I seem to her end to be the condition of the transition of the trans and through a recoverant of her old school. Very strict in religious observances, and a man of integrity, he was sometimes thought by those who did not know him closely to he know her,

"The farmstead bring close by an "The farinstead lying close by an Indian.trail, the Hurous would fre-quently visit the honse. They were always treated with consideration, Grandma would give them some-thing to eat and say a few kind thing to est and say a test according to the state of the words.

"It was only naturally you will say, that she also attracted the young republe. They liked to talk to her and listen to her stories of life side. Gilnockie?" it to Old Land, which some of my (To belloonchidel.)

had then never seen. It was no une common thing for ber to have quite a gathering of them in the house. They would come from neighbouring farms.

It was something to remember 10 t was something to remember to see Grandfather and Grandmother-out together! Grandmother never had a new dress while we knew her in Canada. I don't think she hought in Canada. I thank think are hought one after arriving in the country. The fashions certainly did not impose a heavy tax upon the finance of that Medonte household, Grandmother wore a little old bounce, all fulled round, and her hair done up fullel round, and her hair done up in papers. She also wore a eap to keep the hair back. And Grand-father with his one old-fashioned plug hat—if only that hat could have spoken, what a family history of funerals, weddings, and other eermonies it could have unfolded!—and an equalty historic black frock cont, was a familiar figure about the cont, was a familiar figure about the place. Garbud in this fashion they went regularly to church. And you should have heard them sing there! They had wouderful voices.
"They were, above all else, a good old couple. Grannic always took her liblie to service, with her hand-kerchief and a spring of newly-place that is a superior to the control of the couple of the c kerchief and a sprig of newly-plack-ed 'Ohl Man,' or Southerwood, in the cneer: and we neere knee till recently that the Southerwood in the Bible had any particular mean-ing heyond her fancy for its home-like, refreshing smell. New we are told that it is the observance of some sacred custom from the days of St. Columb. the missionary who first preached Christianity in Sent-half.

land."
Gideon also was never far away from his Bible, of which he was a loving and diligent student, and we have seen and handled the treasured old volume, with its leather cover worn through where the hand that is now lifeless held the book for so is now liteless held the mook for so many years.

In the long winter evenings, his days work done, he would sit and read aloud, now from the Serip-tures and then from their heloved tures and then from their network book of Semilish paraphrases; now, from lonathan Edwards on "Justifi-ention" or "Sanctification," and their from Hervey's "Meditations Among the Immis"—shayay realing out for Grannie's edification who sat kuit-Graunie's edification who sat knitting by the fire. And it "remote from towns they ran their Golly race." they also found sweet content in their comparative loneliness.
The rute long cabin became indeed to them a veritable house of God, with Whom conversing they forgot
"all time and toil and care."

di time and toil and care.

Like the exiled slave in Longfellow's poems, Grannic loved the Psalms of David, "Before Jehovah's awful thronel-Ye nations bow with awful throne: Ye intions now with sacred joy," was a favourite; au-other was "I to the hills will life unite eyes," and during the last years and days she would-often read, of ask Gideon to read to her, "My race ask tideon to reauto ner, my face is run, my warfare o'er. That in-deel was one of her last requests. "Yes, Grannic was a fine old lady." is her granddaughler's conclusion; "the was an Armstrone, Jane Arm strong, ye ken, dropping naturally into the inherited Scots accent, and

WINTER WARPARE IN THE TORONTO DIVISION.

Almost Whole Village at Army Meeting—Encouraging Victories —Band Tactics.

(By Staff Captain Bloss.) Brigadier Hargrave, during the Young People's Campaign, enrolled eleven Seulor Recruits at West Torongu, in addition to the thirteen

"The Young Soldiers more back-At Fencion Falls two more backaliders have recently sought God. These comrades. Captain Davis will strengthen the fighting oree there. The Divisional Commander, Lieut. The Divisional Commander, Licut-Colonel Chandler, unfortunately has been kept to his room owing to an attack of tonsilitis. He was compelled to cancel his arranged week-cuil visit to Oshawa.

Lieutenant McCaughey reports did congregation on Sunday, December 7th, nearly the whole village being present. The comrades vis-ited the Outpost, Kinmount, and had a splendid meeting, The Army Hall being full. Captain and Mrs. Moon of Parry

Captain and Mrs. Moon of Farry Sound report good meetings, and that two souls sought salvation. Adjulant Carender of the Soo writes: "We had a very stormy week-end; stown in abundance; but the "Gospel storm" drove three week-end; show in abundance; but the "Gospel storin" drove three souls ashore, and they got saved. "Probabilities"—another such storm, and the sooner the better."

Caranta Pandamon like their comrades elsewhere, are just now busy doing extra service, Christmas seronadius being in full siving. The Toronto public appreciate The Army's Band, The "Soo" Band, by the way, has placed an order with Trade Heatiquarters for a monstre

While speaking of Band affairs, we may also mention that Oshawa las on order nearly six hundred dollars' worth of "Class A" Army-make instruments.

The writer recently visited Orangeville, accompanied by Captain Weeks. With the rest of the tain Weeks. With the rest of the passengers we had to detrain half-way up the line, and transfer to another train because of a wreek. Captain Weeks gave his lantern aervice cutilted. The Way of the Cross" on Sainrday night, We land Cross on Saturday light. We find splendid meetings on Sunday includ-ing a meeting with the old folks in the House of Refuge. There is a small band of faithful Soldiers at this Corps, led on by Captain Chap-man and Lieutenant Luxton. A few - Captain-Hood of Brampton been sick for some days, but is thanks and is possessed of a think-ful spirit will find not a little plensure and profit in reviewing the year to recount the manifold mereles of God, touching not only himself, but families, communities, and even the world at large. Who, so doing, will not be led to exclaim with the psalmist. "How manifold are Thy works, O Lord, and how great Thy goodness toward the children of

The coarrade who, presumably in-error, took from the Toronta Temple-on the night of the Massey Hall overflow meeting, a Band pouch and books belonging to the Dovercourt Band, is asked to retgiver these to Bandmaster, Palmer at Territorial

The Praying League.

2. Pray that the drink evil may be swept away.
3. Pray for the salvation of unfortunate victims of inchriety.
4. Pray for a Dominion-wide ware of soul-saving-that "Sinners of every kind may a loving Saviour 8-19".

5. Pray that the passing of au-other years may bring sinners and backsliders to see the need of immediate preparation for eternity, Daily Bible Topics:

Daily Bible Topics: SUNDAY, Dec. 28.—"It is Not Dark." Psalms 142:1-7; 143:1-12. MONDAY, Dec. 29.—The Glory of Dark." Psalms 149:1-7; 143:1-12.
MONDAY, Dec. 29:—The Glory of the Lord. Psalms 145:1-21.
TUESDAY, Dec. 30.—Kindness of
the Lord. Psalms 146:1-10;

147:t-11. WEDNESDAY, Dec. 31.—Praise Psaims, 148:t-14: t40:4-5;

150:1-6.
THURSDAY, Jan. 1, 1914.—The First Step. Isajah 1:1-20.

system. We have a High Priest in Heaven who pleads for us and shows His wounds, and He can be touthed with the feelings of our Infarities.—He can be reached. We have free access, and hy faith all the love and-power of God are at our disposal through prayer. A soul in "telepathie" communication with Heaven is bound to be consolous of growth.

is bound to be consolous of growth.

How blessed is prayer! Many Soldiers of God have largely lost the gift of the Holy Ghost because it has got so far from the "upper room" of prayer; and strong crying to Gnd.

Prayer is ever the chief method of sulvence in the divine life; as well the Kingdom of God: Prayer helps us to know ourselves. It shuts us up with God. We are never so near to Heaven as when in prayer.

as the golden key to usefulness in the Kingdom of God. Prayer helps Peterhoro. The Corps is progress-ing spiritually, and in every way."

"What about Candidates?"
"Oh, we have some really ine young people. One of these, a young woman, was saved as a child at Quehec, in one of the city churches, and there was, so far as the majority of people could tell, no reason why ot people could tell, no reason why, she should not do well there.

"The fact was, however, that every time she went to church a voice seemed to say to her, 'You ought to be a Salvationist. You ought to be

"Renfrew. Used to be a pretty hard field, but that looks all right. closse't it? It's much better now than it used to be!

Brigadier Morchen's Opinion.

I num more than places with the ndvance copy of the Christman "War Cry." You certainly have not spared any effort in its production. The pictorial effects are all last one could desire, and the reading is cerlainly full of interest,

I heartly congentual on on this
I heartly congentual or production in Caunda, which extrainly reflects groot credit, and I pruphesy that it will have a great sale.—Wm. Jas.
Morehen, Brigadier.

TAST ONTABIO AND DUEBEC.

Brigadier Rawling Speaks of Soul-Saving, Property Advances, and Candidates.

and Candidates.

In a hurried conversation at Montreal the other day the Divisional Commander of the East Onsional Commander of the last On-tario and Quebee Division (Briga-dier Rawling), who was home from his lecture tour for a few hours, apoke gratefully of advance in vari-ous parts of the command. "At Trenton," said the Brigadier,

"At Irenton," said the Brigadie "Captains Atkinaon and Pearce are having quite a revival. They are getting seekers for salvation all along; there were five on Smiday, and there is little doubt that they, will have a good winter spiritually, at the Corps.
"There has also been a considerable move at Napanee, where Lieuin charge, Morrishitrg, too, has just had a number of seekers, among them a great trophy. Lieutenant Sauren is in command.

"Captain Turner, of Ottawa II., is getting crowds of people, and Adjutant Mckilheney is doing well at Peterboro. The Corps is progress-be a Salvationist. You ought to be an Army Officer?

"This went on for nine years in-it, a few months ago she resolved to take her stand and dare to obey the voice of God.
"She told her mother of her call,

"She told her mother of her call, We shall be sorry to see you go," said the mother, 'but if it is God's will for you, all right; I must not stand in your way." The father re-plied in practically the same terms, and the young woman is now a Can-didate. She has a good position as diddte. She has a good position as bookkeeper in the eity.

"And, then, what do you think of this—three 'accepted Camilinates, young women, in one small Corps?"

"Splendid, where's that?"

than it used to be!
"Property matters are also advancing in the Division. We have, as you know, just opened the Freuch Chadel here, (It is a charming place and no mistake!); Fieren's will be dedicated in a few days, and then comes the turn of Ottwar I, which is being remodelled and cultarged. We have a splendid Corps there—one of the best in The Army, It's doing flue."

Brigadier Morehen's Opinion:

Baudsman T. Gorric, of West Teronto, who is regularly in receipt of a Dutch "War Cry." is prepared to send it to any comrade Hollaude who may care to have it. Address core of Adjutant Campbell, 2 Mavety Street, Toronto.

me was Suntenance to the who did not know him closely to he moure the course of the Course of his grantsons has given us an instance. "A tenhew of my grandfather," in says, "had got into some little difficulty in the Old Country and come herriedly to Canada. It due time the young fellow found himself up near Georgiansley and called at Garden of the course of the country and come the country and come the country and come the country and country and country to the country of the coun

French took charge; the Corps has improved (saya J. M. E.).

"The War Cry" order has been "Vous Soldiers" from the forte; thirty, and we have started meetings

Hehrlefen: Dat. Or:

Wychwood (Totontolous).

On Sunday, December 7th (asy)

G. S.) the nettings were considered and the second of the

IN LOOKING BACK. The individual who daily gives -it is the link between earth and very lite of the soil. Incre are two kinds and prayer that sustain spiritual life: Intercessory and pri-vate, or soul, prayer. Inward com-munion should feet the outward and intercessory exercise of the soul

FRIDAY, Jan. a.—Universai P ace.

Isainh 2:2-11; 5:8-23.
SATURDAY, Jan. 3.—Disappoint
cd. Isainh 5:1-7; 6:1-9.

We put off and we pit on. We really grow, and their, coming forth growth of the faces of the people, we are freed to the faces of the people.

There is one means of growth in grace which without doubt has been the employment, as well as the conthe employment, as well as the con-solation, of the saints of all ages-nut that is, prayer. A praying sonl, if the praying is believing and pre-vailing, is a growing soul. There can be no stagnation, no degenera-tion, no arresting of growth where prayer is. Prayer is the breath, the very like of the soul. There are

We put out and we put out, we real-ly grow, and then, coming forth from the presence of God, we are not afraid of the faces of the people. We ore refreshed, we are armed, and we go forth into the battle with the certainty of inward and outward iletory.

Moses shook the power of Egypt

Prayer and Growth.

Moses shook the power of Egypt mid made he houses he had seen the free of God in quietness in the desert, Jacob overeame Essaut because he had overeame Essaut because he had wrestled first with the oecenna angel. Lutther faced Chinrles V. and made Rome quake, because he had won an inward victory in his cell in Ferti. He was immortal, so to speak, till his work was done, to the control of the c of enemies or friends. Nelson, B. C.
White Captain Hale was at Winning Councils, Mrs. Hale held on at the Corps (says). W.). She gave some very helpful address, both in Soldiers' meetings and Holiness meetings. Two alsters and the blessing of a clean heart.
We are getting good crowds on Sunday nights.

On December 6th and 7th Major ond Mrs. Miller were here. The Major's lecture on Bermada was o trent (say's W. B.), and his words were an inspiration.

On Sunday morning, seven company and the say of the say of rades sought the blessing of a clean freart. At night there were four seekers for salvation.

Brigades Present.

The second of the series of united Songster Pestivals in Toronto took place at the Temple on Thursday, December 11th, under the presidency of Brigadier Potter, who neither as authitute for Lieut-Colone Chandle, who was siek.

Seven Brigades—Doverourt, Lisgar, No. L. Riverdale, Temple, West Bronto. Wychwood-were present, and Adjutant Harry Green and Cap-tains Pugmire and Myers assisted. There was a fair attendance Taken as a whole, the quality of Taken as a whole, the quality of the singing was not quite so good as that ni the first festival al Lisgar Street, although in some numbers, an improvement was noticeable. Dovercourt gave a good rendering of "The Lot of the Rightcous": the treble voices were somewhat out of tune, but the bass section did well. The tenor singers, at times, fell flat. The piece is a taxing one, and needs careful treatment.

Lisgar Street's item was much ap-reciated as was that of Toronto I. Wychwood sang "Come House" to Mychwood sang "Come Home" to the well-known melody written as a cornet solo in "Swiss Melodies No. 2.". The Riverdale Brigade sang sweetly and in good time, even if lacking somewhat in precision. The "Mighty to Save" selection calls for close attention in this respect. West Toronto, it was the unanimous opinion, sang most creditably.

The Brigade essayed "Abide with Me," and throughout maintained a well done.

The Temple Brigade saug with their usual care and taste, although, in the presenting of a new piece, the various sections of the song occasionally lacked continuity. Sisters Guess, Phillips, Farmer, and Mrs. Whitehouse, also Brothers Keon and Darling, contributed pleasing numbers.

numbers.
The singing of the united Brigades, led by Songster Leader Tur-pitt of the Temple, reached a mag-nificent clinax in the rendering of "Called from Above-f Rise" to the tune of "Southport." This was "Called from Above I Rise" to the tane of "Southport." This was really thrilling, and was sung with a solid, rich, full tone which would have done credit to, any-hody of voices, in or out of The Army's "rapks, Other united pieces were "Come, let us raise our cheerful strains' and 'Stand up and bless the Lord.''

Makers of Music and Song. Next Week's Issue.

More careful attention to phrasing would have improved the singing of cach and all of the Brigades, where the strains were supported by the strains' and 'Stand up and bless the mentioned, collected over fairy dollars. Well done, Sergeant-Majori.

"Get me a good scat, sir, if you please. I have come twenty miles ing of each and all of the Brigades. Why do some Sungstors persist in giving to one note the two syllables of a word which is written to cover two notes, or vice versa? Here is a detail worth froubling about.

On November 15th, the Fernie all right. On November 15th, the Fernie Songster Brigade gave a good pro-gramme, which was much appre-ciated by an attentive audience (says E. D.). A service of song en-titled "Pursined by Grace," was an interesting feature of the evening, while another very good item, con-sisted in the singing of "His promises are sure, if you only believe" (the late General's last message). There was also an instrumental duct, and a quartette by some of the Songsters. Captain McLean solved, and one of our Bandsnaen played a and one of our Bandsman played a cornect solo.

We have a newly-organized String Pand, which made its first appearance on this occasion, and received considerable applause for its part of the programme. Refreshments were served during an interval. Mr. ettigled the chair. Proceeds of the venus St. evening, $40.

Following their usual week-night practice, the Staff Bandsmen, on Thursday, December 4th, made their way to the home of the Commissioner, and standing directly oppo-site the open front floor, played some of our sick Leader's favourite tunes. That the Band was permitted to do That the Band was permitted to do this, was not only a sign of some im-provement in the Commissioner's condition, but an honour (Bat thou-sands of Bandsmen all over the world would covet, were the Com-missioner in their midst. The Staff Band endeavoured to worthily represent their comrades on this occasion. sent their contrades on this occasion, and there is good reason to believe that their music brought real cheer and blessing to the spirit of one who has brought music and happiness into the lives of so many others:

Of the Stto which the Riverdale Band (Toronto) has just raised for the purchase of a new monstre bass, Sergeant-Major Bradley, it should

"Get me a good seat, sir, if you please. I have come twenty miles to see and hear this service." Thus spoke an old man to the leader of the Staff Band as the people were entering the Massey Hall on the final Sunday of the Band's recent campaign there. He got the seat

On Tuesday, December, 2nd Montreal IV. Isand held a supper, followed by a festival in ald of the Band League. "English Melodics," "Glorious Tidings," and "Harvest Praises" (the latter a great favourite at our Corps), were on the programme. Solos, duets, etc., were also, condered Appropriate also rendered. Appropriate addresses were given by the Band-master, Brother Robb, and Band Secretary Cully (says G. D.).

Secretary Cully (says G. D.).

We were pleased to have with us for a few days Brother C. West, a former Bandsman of our Corps, who is now at Dovercourl, Toronto.

On Sunday, November 30th, On Sunday, November 30th, the Brantford Tand, led by acting Bandmoster Budd (late of Shoreliam, Eng.), played to the inmates of the Tuberenlosis Hospital. On Saturday night the Band made a special effort on behalf of the Great Lakes Disaster Fund, and raised $29.

Earlscourt (Toronto) Bandsmen have just purchased a unmber of quarters, and the Band's appearance is now uniform. On Sunday, De-ecuber 7th, the Band was in charge centher 7th, the Band was in charge of the meetings, and on Monday-gave a musical programme, Adultain II, Green was chairman, "Christehturch" and "Soldiers of Christ" marches, and "Salvation" selection were among the pieces

Played,
On Saturday, November 22ud, the Montreal II, Band, went, to assist Brigadier Rawling at the French Corps, On Sunday the Band had charge of the meetings (says-D. H. P.). Knee-drill was lead by Bandsman Beal, the Hobitess meeting by Bandsman Weaver. In the afternoon a musical service was given, Band Sergeant Whalen being in "THE STORY OF A WONDER.
FUL SONG."

Special to Canada's "Cry" by Col. Kitching. A new "Class A" horn, also a cornet, are on order. With the New Year, we shall turn our attention to the latest Band Iournals

Peterboro's Young People's Rand made its first appearance, since re-organization, on Wednesday, No-vember 26th, at a Junior demonstration. The lads get an enthusiastic reception, and $57 was contributed towards their Band Fund.

towards their Band Fund.
Recently the Senior Band (42 strong) went to Havelock, Ont., and gave a musical programme in the Methodist Church. A' large crowd was present (says E. H.). The Band was welcomed by the Rev. Mr., Real. Adjutant McElheney presided.

Forty Seekers at Brandon.

Visit of Major and Mrs. McLean.

(By Wire.)

Brandon, Man., Dec. 15.—A splendid series of meetings, with the Divisional Commander, Major Mc-Lean, leading, and supported by Mrs. McLean, Adjutant and Mrs. Jaynes, was held during the week-

The campaign opened Saturday right with a praise meeting. In Sunday morning's Holiness meeting the Major spoke very forcibly, and the Major spoke very forcing, and there were seventeen seekers for full salvation. The Major visited the Jall, and eight men sought forgive-ness of their sins. Mrs. McLean ad-ness of their sins. Mrs, McDean ad-dressed the Company meeting, and five children sought God. In the afternoon meeting Mrs. McDean gave an excellent address, and a backstider knelt at the Mercy Seat. The Major spoke with great power The Major spoke win great point in the night meeting, and there were nine seekers for salvation. The Band and Songsters greatly helped in the campaign.

Captain Henry Bevan of Cohourg. Ont., has been awarded a diploma by the Officers' Advanced Training hy the Officers' Advanced Trains Department for his studies Homileties.

Adjulant Kendall, Hamilton.

disappointed with the keen con-sciousness that the priceless oppor-tunity was lost or given away.

The leader should bear in mind—

1. That both sinners and Christ-

That both sinners and consti-ions will be present.
 That each individual will natur-ally be inclined to a retrospective ally he inclined to a retrospective such examination.

3. That a most heneficial outcome, both on the Kingdom of God and to the Kingdom with God of the triple of the control coverant with God entered and the control coverant with God entered in real camest.

4. That ample opportunity should prestly and anishble manners prestly and anishble manners for those those precious moments for any individual's desire to hold the attention.

they are able to accomplish. One of the men recently helped of the mean that through its official parties lost his job as a lace layer, and was ashamed to go incide home. He had previously kept steady for seven years, and then broke out. He had wellow the heterest until his feet were in a terible condition, and when he appealed for help at the frodustrial Department, they had to send him to the Hospital, where he remained to the lospital, where he remained rates to locked after him there, however, and Dr. Conboy kindly attended him.

tended him.

His wife was communicated with and the came up to see him. He was, she said, the kindest of huslends when not denking. Now they are re-united, the husband having hem restored to her as a converted man. He has written the following letter of thanks to Lieut-Col.

Rees and the comrades of the Industrial Department:— "! wish to thank you from my hearl for the brotherly kindness which you reached out to me at a time when the world seemed to have girned its back on one, although I tended bim.

by the Department had, through his Suggestions For Watch Night. OFFICERS SPEAK FROM EXPERIENCE ON HOW TO MAKE IT MOST EFFECTIVE.

We asked a number of Field Officers to give "The War Cry," specially for the benefit of their younger comrades, a few suggestions from their own experiences on how to make a Watch Night service most effective. Their replies are as, under

r. I would say: The Officer in charge, previous to such a service, must do much in raising the standard of the service in the eyes of the people—creating a graud spirit of prayer. Those present must expect real Pentecost.

2. The leader of such a meeting must come as a flame of fire him-self. The results will be glorious. 3. To commence such a service at 10 or 10.30 I consider only a format affair. I always commence Half-Nightt of Prayer or Warch Night Nights of Prayer or Watch Night Services at eight o'clock and go right through. When God is there, the time is short. The result is God-glorifying.

4. Subject: Real, radical, red-hot 4. Subject: Real, radical, red-hot religiou. Finish up with an old-fashioned prayer meeting. 5. Then the Corps is ready for a real smashing winter's revival. Amen! Cloy! H. C. Kendall, Adjutant.

The Watch Night service may be made a means of great spiritual blessing to those who attend. Usually there are some who will Usually there are some who will come to this service who seldom at-tend a Soldiers' or Hohness meet-ing. It is a splendid opportunity to press the question of Pull Salvation and Re-consecration. I have used the 15th Psalm with good effect.
"Lord, who shall abide in Thy wars shows the first best are during the past year to briefly tell us how the service of God compares with Itler ille before conversion.

2. I would get some sisters to speak of God's dealings with people who are in the light of one who are the light of the work of the service of God's dealings with people who are in the light of one who otherwise the service of t most effective. Their replies are as under.

16. That after such a sacred season
6. The fact of such a sacred season
6. The fact of such a sacred season
7. I revold say: The Officer in charge, previous to such a service, must do much in raising the standard of the service in the cyse of the people—creating a grand spirit of prayer. Those present must expect
1. I revold say: The Officer in conditions can be enforced. The conditions ca he reconcite to each other. The hearts ought to be pure in the sight of God. The knowledge that this was so would bring joy, and there would be no room for pride, anger, matice, skunder, strife, self-will, or makee, skander, strite, seemorprejudice.

The secret of Elijah's happy years and useful life is found in a single line, "So he went and did according muto the word of the Lord,"—I Kings 17:11.

T. J. Mecks, Adjutant.

I would say: 'Announce it well belorghand Commence at 10,30, 50 belorehand. Commence at 10,30, so so not to have to rush. Get first-comers well to the Iront, and, if there are not enough present to fall like pethe audience Irom being scattered over huiding. Get a few reliable comrades to speak, reflect-ing on the past year. Finish up with a Seripture talk, an invitation arranged.

4. In my lesson I would speak of God's love—to the father, in giving him health and strength, and to the Show also that mother in the home. Show also the God is also a God of judgment. Then give some illustrations of the things that should have led to to re-consecration, and an appeal, Like all other services, its success Like all other services, its success largely depends upon the amount of soul the leader puts into it, both before and while leading it.

J. Mercer, Adjotant.

I have found it a good thing to

To these suggestions we would add one other: Why not make use of the Covenant specially provided in the Christmas "War Cry" for this heginning of the New Year. I have found this way to work well.

H. A. Hurd, Ensign,
Halifax II. work, Christian fellowship, and warm-hearted, encouraging com-panionship. You visited me when sick; you cared for me and brought me to the feet of our Lord, u con-trie peniture sinner, where i found peace and salvation.

Major Simco, Vancouver.

3. I always have special singing repentance during the year, such as shipwreeks and railway disasters. Start the prayer meeting at 11.30 sharp, so as to get as many as pos-hold an open-air at 10 p.m. and then to start the Wateh Night at 10.30, after song and prayer. I. I would have some of the worst characters that had been sav-away.

peace and salvation.
"Now I am happy. Praise the Lord! I am freed from my besetting sin, and have become a new han in Christ Jesus. My ennest endeavour from now on will be to pass suell good work along, and help another trembliog, testiating soul to the only layen of security.

"May God bless The Army, Its Officers, and Soldiers, and all con-nected with it, and may its every effort to raise and strengthen the effort to raise and strengthen the fallen be blessed with success. Through The Army I am made a new man, and a faithful follower of Jesus Christ. May hlessing follow, your every effort.—J. C. B."

"I am very thankful for your kindness in helping me out and keeping me rill I got on my feet, T. T."

The Industrial Department.

LETTERS OF THANKS FROM MEN WHO HAVE BEEN HELPED BY ITS MEANS.

LI. good work is sure to be criticized, especially by such as know little or nothing of what they are criticizing; lut Adjutant Hector Habkirk and our comrades of the Torento Industrial Department, also receive many criticers of gratifude for the work

Was to blame. I came to the Offic-ers of The Army, told them just what I was—one whom the demon drink; had wound his coils around. "You took hold of me, gave me

Wedding Group from Bermuda. (See Page 7.)

Songster Brigade.

D. Major and Mrs. Phillips —
D. Major and Mrs. Phillips —
D. Saturday. December 6th, the
On Saturday. December 6th, the
If on Saturday. December 16th, the
If on Saturday. December 16th, the One of Saturday of Saturday. Previous to the district hair been well enntasted, and the coming of The Arry was made well known. The inside was strended by a inside good meeting was strended by a inside meeting was attended by good number of people, and the first soul—a man—was won for Go t soul—a man—was won for God.
was present at all Sunday's open-airs and meetings.

The Sunday morning service was conducted by Brigadier Taylor (Training College Principal) and (Training College Principal) and the first Holiness meeting will long be remembered. A number of testimonies were given by Soldiers whu, owing to the lack of a Corps in their owing to the lack of a Corps in their vicinity, had been deprived of the privilege of attending. Holiness and other meetings, The Brigadier's address, on the "Five Arches of the Pool of Bethesda," was very help-Pool of Bethesda," was very help-little. The Sunday afternoon meeting consisted largely of praise, music, and song the testinponics being in-terspersed with instrumental quar-testes, vocal solos, Band, and Male items.

Major and Mrs. Phillips led on at Major and Mrs. Philips led on at night. The Major's convincing ad-dress on "The Sacrifice of Jesus Christ" brought conviction to many. hearts, and in the prayer meeting, led on by Mrs. Phillips, three souls sought pardon.

The Cadets (says K. T. A.) have The Cadets (says K, T. A.) have been well received by the people of the neighbourhood, and in selling "The War Cry" and in visitation, great interest has been manifested by all classes.

The Corps is to be under Training College supervision, with Cadet Sergeant-Major Spooner in command,

PERTH'S BIG CAPTURES. Conversion of Drunkards Stirs the

On Saturday November 29th, a strunkard kneit at the Mercy Scat, fewing a both feet at the Mercy Scat, fewing a both feet at the few said lad been his suffer with feet also gave no tobacco. Our Survey (says H. E.) three more son kneit sat the Cross, one of them being the sister of the convert of the previous related.

On Sunday night, December 7th, instead of seeing four or five com-rades preparing to hold a meeting, fourteen were seen. Five out of the seven converts who kucht at the Mercy Seat during the previous

Merry Seat during page 1 previous week were amongse the previous week were amongse the propie to ging and look? The wonderful change in the lives of two men who were estanding in the ring. Before conversion they could not get enough, whiskey to satisfy them; now they were under The Army's Fing, singare under The Army's Fing, singare to be previously the propiety of the propiety o bestimony at the Hall, said; "What brought me here has Saturday pight?" (meaning the night he kneit at the Mercy Seat.) "I always go kome along the back streets, but somehow! I passed the corner where I streed to turn, and the next thing Chaeva! I have I was here?"

panions knelt at the Mercy Seat on Tuesday, December 9th, and while there, said: "If God can save and keep my chum, He can do the same for me. The number of people at-tending the meetings is double that

Field Secretary's Easterno Lour

COLONEL GASKIN CONDUCTS OPENING ACT AMMERCE'S NEW CITADEL M. B.F.W. IMPRESSION OF ARMY—THE MAYOF PROMISES ALD—VISIT TO CAMPELLION—COUNCILS AND PUBLIC MEETINGS IN THE HALIFAX DIVISION FOR THE HALIF

N Friday, November 28,... Amherst's new Citader was opened, Colonel Caskin (Field Secte-Amherst's new Citadef was opened, Colonel Gaskin (Field Secte-try) conducting the service, and the meetings of the following nucleonic ing weeksend

Sunday's campaign brought interested and enthusiastic crowds to the new Clindel, which, in the afternoon and at night, was crowded, and many had to be turned away. The Colone's addresses were greatly appreciated. Many comrades renewed their consecration in Sunday's Holiness meeting and at night five souls sought Christ. A local newspaper gives the following ac-count of the opening services on Friday:- Citadel on Princess

"The new Citage! on Francess Street was formally opened last evening. Among the Officers who evening. Among the Officers who were in town to attend the opening were Colonel A. Gaskin, Toronto; Major L. E. Taylor, of St. John; Staff-Captain Coombs, of St. John, Adjutant Calvert, Toronto, promise that if The Army Officers prumise that if. The Army Officera would inform the town-authorities with regard to deserving cases of, overty, the fown would be only two gladro lend its aid at this season of the year.

"R. S. Carter, M.P.P., referred to his first house was a season of the season of the season of the year."

"K. S. Carler, M.P.P., teferred to his first experience in meeting The Army in St. John while staying at a hotel in that city. The Army held an open-sir meeting in front of the hotel and sang "All the Way to Colvary," the impression of which had remained in his mind must the nad remained in his mind until the present time.

"C. I... Martin; President of the Board of Trade, spoke of the important work done by The Army in bringing new settlers to this an anguight new sections 10 miss country. If J. Logan, K.C., paid a glowing tribute to the work of The Arman Amherst, Springhill, and clesowher The Rev. Hamilton Wigle also gooks and a fetter was read-from Mrg. E. N. Phodes M.P. ("Colonel Gaskin, ii an eloquent address, reviewed the world-wide address, reviewed the world-wide

... Amherst's New Citadel-Opened by Colonel Gaskin, Portraits of some of our friends will, we hope, appear next week.

prior to the meeting in the Citadel. Colonel Gaskin, from the steps of the building, delivered a short dedi-catory address and then Mr. E. E. Ifewson, who has been a large subscriber to the building fund, was emberiher to the bediegen; a large given the key to opin find, was given the key to opin find, was given the key to opin find the season of the consideration of the consideratio

"After grayer by Staff Captain Counts, Rev. H. E. Diliblee read the Scripture lesson. Then followed a short uddress by Mr. Edgal E. Hewson, who dwelt on the splendid work that The Army was doing in Amherst and throughout the world.

"Mayor J. N. Eage congratulated The Army on securing a new home, and spoke, of the important work, that The Army was doing among the poor of the town, and made the

"The usual street service was held not to the meeting in the Citade. is an edgenet speaker, and his words offend Gaskin, from the steps of stirred the audience. The meeting was closed by the singing of the Doxology and a prayer by Rey. Mr.

On Tuesday a sale of work and Wigner.

On: Thesday a sale of work and hot supper we held in the Citadel. These were well patronized, and on a building deplars was raised for the building deplars was raised for the building deplars. The new Citadel, while in of brief where, is centrally loented, and will be a great boon to The Army's work in Amherst, which has been handleanged day rears, for want of a stitable [Jal]. A hot-sir furnnee heats the building, which heldeds a suitable (18th, A hot-air furnace heats the building, which includes a main hall seating about three hun-dred; Primary Class-room, Library, Band-toom, and Officers' room.

Visit to Campbellton, N.B.

The Field Secretary, while in this Delision, also existed Campbellton. The town, which the control of the contr The Field Secretary, while in this Division, also visited Campbellton, gain flying there, the re-open Spring there, the re-open services having been held in the Opera House, the use of which kindly granted by Mr. S.

kindly granted by Mr. S.
Dimock, the owner.
O'mock, the owner.
O'A frame building used as a church of the prichased, and moved to the frame of The Army's lot. This building the control of the Army's lot. rwee spitchssed, and moved to a free of the Army 3-10-1. This pall sing has been enlarged, painted has been enlarged, painted has been enlarged, painted has been enlarged by the spitch of the spitch

In the Halifax Division.

In the Halifar Division.

Colonel Gaskin arived in Halifar on Tuesday, December and, and alter spending: a busy afternoon at Divisional is Headquarters, with Divisional : Hendquarters, with Major. Barr. was given a hearty well-come at No. I. Corps in the evening, where a united meeting was conducted by the Divisional Commander. After words of welcome from Sajor Jennings, the Chancellor, Additional Commanders, and the Chancellor, Additional Commanders of the Chancellor, Additional Commings, the Chancellor, Additional Commings. jutants. Edwards and Ritchie, and a solo by Ensign Clark, Colonel Gas-kin reviewed his happy surroundkin reviewed his happy surround-ings, and then began a powerful appeal to the unconverted. Five souls surremiered to God.

souls surrendered to God.

On Wednesday after/frob the Colonel conducted an Officers' meeting in the No. I. Citadel, It was n time of real soul inspiration and blessing. Ten was provided for the Officers at the No. II. Corps by Ensign and Mrs. Hurd and their conrades, and again the Colonel touched rades, and again the Colonel touched-our herms (writes W. H. B.) with some impressively spoken truths. The united gathering crowded the Hall, Staff-Captains and Mrs. Coombs from the St. John Division were present, and they, with Major-Jennings, spoke a few words of wel-come and appreciation in regard to the Field Secretary's presence. Misthe Field Secretary's presence, Miss Pearl Madden (Mrs. Staff-Captain Coombs' sister) who was on her way to India as a missionary, gave n-tee words of larewell.

Major Barr then introduced the Cnlorel; who lor tearly in hour, held his audience by his thrilling address on "The Power of the Gospel," A great and lasting impression was made upon the people.

On Thursday night the Colonel, accompanied by Major Barr, was given a plendid recention by Ensign and Mrs. Galway and their courtades and orra, onway and mor courades at Triro. A good crowd was present, and the Colone's racy lecture, "Queer Fish and How They Arc Canght," was greatly enjoyed. United Meeting at New-Glasgow.

United Meeting at New-Ginagow, Friday was spent at New Ginagow, Wrete the Officers from Pieton, Westville, and Stellarton gathered, and urer pointed by Major Taylor of St. John. In the afternoon the Colonel gave the Officers some sound and helpful counsel—the very kind of actions and lothe generalized to the officers some sound and helpful counsel—the very kind of actions and lothe, estudiated for actions and lothe generalized for one gave the Officers some summer and helpful counsel—the very line of ativice and help calculated to strengtien each one in their life and work. Capitain and Mrs. Sproule, with the ail of some contrades, produced the for the Officers.

THE CROSS IS THE ATTRACTION.

Staff Band Conducts Special Service

at Chester,

It was the story of Christ's Cross that attracted people to the new theatre nn Danforth Ave., Chester (Toronto), on Sunday night, December 6th, when the Staff Band repeated the service recently given in the Massey Hall-"The Wondrous ross." The theatre, seating between six and seven hundred persons, was and seven hundred persons, was available to the world and in the very camp to worldiness, so to speak. He Band powerfully preached the Gospei of Christ in picture, song, music, and carnets contration.

"Morning "pictures they were in-deed, but of a very different order to those shown there during the week. They moved one's hearting to love and the hundred with the services of the contraction of the services of t the bluleass for the sacrifice of thankitiness for the satisfies of Calvary, and they were effective in their mission. Although only a little girl knelt at the Mercy Scat, the good accomplished was mani-fested in the prayer meeting, led by Major Findlay, in more than one way.

Brigadier Taylor gave the explanatory readings of the service, and rendered aid in the prayer meeting.

Major Attwell was chairman of a Major Attwell was chairman of a service of praise given by the Band in the theatre in the afternoon, Ad-jutant Hanagan (Staff Bandmaster), and Staff-Captain Morris were, as usual, directly responsible for the arrangements of the meeting, and Captain and Mrs. Parsons co-operted with enthusiasm.

On the following Sunday the Band conducted similar meerings in a theatre at Lee and Queen Streets, Toro to. The night service drew a large erowd.

BRIGADIER CAMERON.

With Women Cadets at the Toronto

Temple,
Down-rown Toronto was fairly roused on Sunday, December 7th, when Brigadier Cameron, assisted by the staff of the Women's Wing of the Training College and the entire Session of girl Cadest, conducted the meetings at this Corps. The ed the meetings at this Corps. The sistors were "on the ground" from Kneedrill until nearly ten o'clock. There were two seekers at the even a.m. meeting, and one in the Holiness meeting, in which Brigadier Cameron gave a thoughtful address. In the alternoon, the Cadets were given a free hand, and a most interesting programme they presented. The Army's Plag and its meaning was the chief rojoic. The String Hand did good service. At tight, the Cagles again conducted night, the Cadets again conducted the major part of the service, and

Brigadier Cameron made the final appeal. There were seven surren-ders for salvation. Crowds were ood. Four persons knelt at the Mercy

Scat on Saturday night, in the meet-ing led by Staff-Captain Hayes, There were a number of seekers during the week. On Monday night (December 1st) the Corps Cadets

WHAT A WEEK WITH-THE ARMY DID.

In a state of despendency, Joseph Hookman tried to make an exit from llookman tried to make an exit from this weary world by swallowing car-bolic acid. It did not work properly (savs the Toronto "Telegram"). For a week The Salvation Army have had him in hand, and they report that he has now seen it his duty-to take a cheerier view of things. The magistrate allowed him to go.

COPY OF ADDRESS TO

His Royal Flighness

THE DUKE OF CONNAUCHT AND STRATHEARN, K.G., K.T., K.P., P.C., ETC., GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF CANADA.

Read by the Chief Secretary, at Montreal,

The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army considers itself greatly honoured to-day by your visit to our Institutions in Montreal, and we wish to thank you Montreal, and we wish to thank you very warmly lor this practical evidence of your interest in our work, as well as for an opportunity of showing your Royal Highness something of what we are doing in this

The first Institution you visited. Sir, is our Metropole for Men. It has accumulation for two hundred and eighty-seven (287) nightly, with a dining-room and counter, where cheap meals are supplied. This Institution is filled every night, chiefly by homeless men, who are either out of work, or are in such circumstances as would compel them to speoil their nights on the streets or in the police cells, were this Institution not in evictores Affiliated with the Metropole for Men is our Industrial Department at Men is our Industrial Department at 119 Chatham Street. There we find employment for the many unt-of-works who come to us. By this means they are helped over their period of difficulty, or are otherwise the for permanent situations.

While they are with us they are employed in such work as repairing old meniture boots and shore and turniture, boots and shoes, and m sorting and baling waste paper and rags; and as soon as possible we send them out to permanent situ-

During the last year, by means of the Labour Bureau operated at that Institution, we have found employ-ment (temporary and permanent) for five thousand two hundred and thirteen unemployed men. Your Royal Itighness will also be interested to know that our Of-ficers visit the Prisons in this Protiers visit the Prisons in this Pro-vince, for the purpose of comisciling the men who are about to be dis-charged and finding emptoyment for those who have no friends to assis them. In this way we have helped a large number of ex-prisoners dur-ing the last year.

ing the last year.

But your Royal Highness will know that while the man is serving his sentence, the greatest hardship falls upon his wife and children, and our Officers are constantly cariog for such necessitions families.

The attendance of Salvation Army

Officers at the Police Courts, how ever, prevents some men from going to prison at all, the Magistrates re-cognizing the ability of The Army to influence such men for good, and landing them over to our charge.

In addition to the above-named agencies, we do a considerable amount of relief work, especially amount of relief work, especially during the winter months, in providing lood and clothing for poor mount and c' a. This, your Royal Highness and be gratified to know, has been made possible by the encouse gifts of the charitably disposed people on the charitably and the control of the charitable of

Ontremont is doing a great work for friendless women—a work that tor trentiess women—a work under has won the warmest sympathies of all good people who have at heart the moral welfare of this class. It has been carried on under difficult conditions, due to limited accommodation and want of the money neces-sary for development. But we are

AY it please your Royal pleased to inform your Royal Highphrase to inform your Royal High-ness that a site has been secured, and plans are now in course of prepara-tion, for the creetion of an up-todate Materialy Hespital and Persue Home to be conducted on cimits we have, in the judgment of the Vinnicinal Authorities of Winnipeg, one so successful a work.

In connection with this development we hope to arrange to provide a Home for Ornhans and Newlected a none for Orphans and Regietted Children, where work will be eatried on similar in character to that in our Home at Hintonhurg, Otrawa.

We have also in Montreal a Re-luge for Homeless Women, which luge for Homeless Women, which is meeting another great need.

The Hossel for Young Women, which your Royal Highness has just visited, is intended to provide a sale and temporary home for immigrant domesties and other young wonten who may, for the time being, he without friends in the eity. Incoming seamships and rains are met by our Officera, and the young women are cared for until they no potential. are cared for until they go into their positions, It is also a hume fur them whenever they may be changing in all this Social Effort, The Salvation Army's purpose is to elevate the individual in the highest sense, thus fitting him to regain his place as a useful citizen. We sthmit, there-fore, that The Army is truly the servant of the State in dealing with its many Social problems. It will be of interest to your Royal

It will be of faterest to your Royal Highnest oc know that in addition to these Social Institutions, Divisional Headquarters is in Mont-real, where are located our extremely tive offices, from which the work is directed in East Outario and throughout the Province of Quebec. Our Spiritual Work is the founda-tion of all Salvation Army Effort.

without which these other agencies without which these other agencies would be practically impossible. This work is carried on it six Halls, in connection with which evangelistie services and house-to-house visitation are continued every day of the year. The work in this city is the year. The work in this city is controlled by sixty-five salaried Of-ficers and employees, who are aided by hundreds of lay workers, who ledge that our relations with the churches of the chy are of the most kindly and cordial character. Your Royal Hightess will be

Your Royal Hightess was that General Bramwell has just visited the Dominion, and has just visited the Dominion, and we helieve you will share the great satisfaction which we of The Salvation Army feel over the splendidly him by generous reception given him by the Canadian public. His father, our late General, was regarded with affection throughout the Dominion, garded

May we, in conclusion—I speak also for Commissioner Rees, our Chief Commanding Officer in Canada-be permitted to express to your Royal Highness, on behalf of The Salvation Army throughout the Royal Highness, on benait of the Salvation Army throughout the Dominion, our deep gratitude to Al-mighty God for the recovery of her Royal Highness the Duchess? We, beg also to assure you, Sir, of the GETTING PEADVI

Helpful Council for Officers of the Toronto Division. On Wednesday, December, 3rd, the Officers of the Toronto Division were met in Council by their Divi-sional Commander, Lient,-Colonel Chandler, who was accompanied by Alrs. Chandler. We had a good day together (says R. M. R.), returning to our posts of duty quickened and inspired by the day's blessings, and inspired by the day's nessings, and fully agreeing with the comrade whose opinion of the gatherings found expression in the wurds," The best yet!"

What a day it was! What testiwhat a day it was: What testi-monies we heard! What burning desires for the salvation of the people were aroused! What Divine outnourings during recent weeks at some Corps in the Division were recalled? What determinations not to "weary in well-dolng" were made, and how keen a realization of the fact that "the King's tusiness re-quireth haste" was ours. Ob that all ye Officer-contrailes from far and near might have heard thoso testimonies.

Then the moments spent upon our Not wasted moments spent alond the Rivers, what can we say of them? Not wasted moments those, but sweet in our memories, and mighty in our experiences. Plans for equipment of the sweet in our memories, and mighty in our experiences. in our experiences. Plans for co-larging our horders, and for coning with the needs of the neonle during with the needs of the people during the coming winter were discussed. What advice the Colonel gave, flow his heart yearned over the Young People until within our hearts he recopic, with within our neares are found a ready response—"We would do as never belore for the Young People, They must be won for God," and "We would go out and help in the winning."

Staff-Captain Bloss pressed the claims of the Corps Cadets, taking us over the new system about to be inaugurated, and orging us to ac-complish all possible in this direction. As for the Officers of the Toronto As for the Onicers of the Founds Division, we are determined to "Pray as if it all depended upon God," and also to "Work as if it all depended upon us,"

WEDDING GROUP.

The following comrades appear in The following comrades appear in the Bermuda wedding group on Page 5. Standing—Captain Graves. Mrs. Graves, Caplain Burelay. Scated— Graves, Caplant Burtony, Scatter-Adjutant Burton, Captain Green-stade, Flower girls—Dorolby Spurling and Dorothy Christianson.

What Major Miller Says.

I have received an advance copy of the Christmas "War Cry," and cell bound to say that I am delighted with the same.

It is indeed the hest thing, to my mind, that we have ever had in Canada, and I have already heard reports of the most favourable characteristics. privileged to see it. One and all privileged to see it. One and all are delighted with it.

Please accept my congramations on the same.—Gideon Miller, Assistant Property Secretary.

Ensign Hurd Speaks.

I will take "this opportunity of congratulating you on the splendid Christmas number this year. I think it is the best yet, and I think it will nuccasing prayer of Salvationists throughout this land for her con-tinued good health; that Divine guidance may be given to your Royal Highness in all the responsithe highest possible success may attend all your efforts for the continued progress of our fair.

His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught,

Visits at His Own Wish The Army's Institutions in Montreal and in Subsequent

GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF THE DOMINION.

Address says. "It is a Positive Sermon in Philanthropy.

DAVID M. REES,

WAR CRY

PRINTED for The Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, and Alaska, by The Salvation: Army Printing House, 18 Albert Street,

GOVERNOR-GENERAL AND THE ARMY.

The visit of the Governor-General to The Army's Institutions in Montreal is an encouragement all the greater lo our comrades throughout the Dominion because of the high opinion to which his Royal High-ness afterwards gave utterance.

ness afterwards gave interance.

"After going through your various Departments, and after seeing the practics! Christian way in which you cope with the various problems with which you have to deal, I conaider," said bis Royal Highness, "that a visit to your Institutions lears is positive sermon in philanthrough."

thropy."

It is certainly cause for gratitude and congratulation that the Governor-General's interest in the Work for The Salvation Army, and generally in efforts for the benefit of the strong and deep as to lead him to visit our Institutions and himself Sook carefully into the principles, methods, and results of the work. Canada is happy in having such a Governor-General.

WINTER CAMPAIGNS.

Unless something is radically wrong Salvationists are ever on the warpath; for them there is no ces-salion of hostilities while sin abounds and the misery that follows after. But the winter season brings enlarged opportunity of reaching the people with the message of mercy and judgment.

Taking advantage of this circumstance special campaigns are to be held throughout the Territory dur-ing the first four months of the New Year. These Territorial efforts are Year. Auese announced as under:

Buring the months of—January, Hollness. Campalgn.
Fabruary, Anti-Drink Campalgn.
March, Campalgn the intereats
Df. Backaliders and ex-Soldiers.
April, Soldier-Making Campaign.
April, Soldier-Making Campaign.
April, Soldier-Making Campaign.
Backaliders and the Soldiers.
April, Soldier-Making Campaign.
April, Soldier-Making Campaign.
Bear announcements of the Campaign.
Commanding Officers which house Commanding Officers within the next few days, are now in the hauds of the Divisional Commanders,

We call upon our contrades everywhere to enter the special effort with such fearless courage and de-termination as shall, by the grace of Gnd, bring about a great triumph abroughout the land. What will

NEXT WEEK'S "CRY."

"Oh Lord kill that Spider!"

General's Welcome Home

ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING IN WESTMINSTER CENTRAL HALL—THE GENERAL'S IMPRESSIONS OF CANADA Special Cable to Canadian "War Cry."

At Westminster Central Hall to-night (Mondey, December 8th) The Central was welcomed home from his journey and campaigna in Canada and the Uniford States.

Commissioner McKie led the great host in prayer, thankfulness to God being the leading note. Prayer and praise, led by the Chief of the Staff (Commissioner Howard), played indeed a prominent part, in this wonderful commissioner seekel ist in great host in prayer, institutioness to God being the leading note. Prayer and praise, led by the Chief of the Staff Chemical Commissioner Howard), played indeed a prominent part in this wonderful meeting. The Chief, who was the first spacker, gracefully referred to the object of tha meeting. His remarks exactly expressed tha sentiments of the audience, and he was repetately cheered.

Commissioner Adelaide Cox spoke on behalf of the Social Work-throughout the United Ringdom.

The British Commissioner's voice was husby after his week-end empalien, but he made a splendid speech, telling of the good work that has a splendid speech, telling of the good work that has been succeeded to the Siege of Loudon evoked hearty and Commissioner Lawlay followed.

The General, in a great speech, which was listened to with keen attention, made particular reference to Tha Army's Work in Canada, with the Immensity of which and our vast opportunities he was greatly impressed. He was very pleased, as well as interested, he said, to notice tile loyally—axing the word in its ordinary sense—of the people of Canada to that Rome Landa, and the feeling of union with the Old Country. They seemed the was also a specially proud of being part and parcel of the Cold Land. It was also a specially proud of being part and parcel of the Cold Land. It was also a specially proud of being part and parcel of the Cold Land. It was also a specially proud of the great special proud of the control of the cold that it was also a specially proud of the part of the cold to the said of the feeling of the cold that the great Empire of which we here to-night form a portion, is desired to play a great part in making the word better and happines of the Canada under the sumple. The General said he was much impressed with the comparative comfort of he part and particular reference to the Chanda under the sumple. The General said he was much impressed with the comparative comfort to play a great part in making the word better and happines

The Army, and a man early my mean of the kindest feeling towards us, and the means.

Bound ovidence everywhere of the kindest feeling towards us, and should be a many that came to me, some belonging to The Army and come outsider many that you, for all the kelp shown to us in sending us to this land of popularity and privilege. I was impressed by and to the control and to proportion the proportion of the worker in the prisons and to see everywhere appreciation of the wonderful influences in our Social Work.

"I was charmed by the signs of progress I saw in the making of The Army, Our people are improving in their work, organization, and methods, and I was gratified by the signs I saw of a wider outlook amongst them.

"I was warmly welcomed in every place. No building was large enough to the crowds who cant to hear and see me."

"The crowds who cant to hear and see me."

"The crowds who cant to hear and see me."

"The crowds who cant to hear and see me."

"The crowds who cant to hear and see me."

"The crowds who cant to hear and see me."

"The crowds who cant to hear and see me."

"The crowds who cant to hear make the candian Campaign, but he was glad to say the Commissioner's heart in the Campaign, but he was glad to say the Commissioner's heart in the Campaign, but he was glad to say the Commissioner's heart in the Campaign, but he was glad to say the Commissioner's heart in the Campaign, but he was glad to say the Commissioner's heart in the Campaign.

The Commissioner's Thanks.

DEEPLY INDEBTED TO THE OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND FRIENDS-IS SURE HIS RECOVERY IS A MIRACLE IN ANSWER TO PRAYER-IMPROVEMENT CONTINUES.

Our readers everywhere will be delighted to know that the Commissioner continues lo improve in health. His progress calls of necessity for particue, but if ere seems to be little doubt that the forecast of the specialist, made in specialist, ing to Dr. Contonies lorder does take a turn for the better," said Dr. Anderson, "he will-surprise to all."

The will-surprise us all."

The patient is now able to sit up for some time every day, and, one of the best indications of returning health, he is again getting natural sleep. He is sailt very frail, however, and in need of his people's con-of the use manufacture frail, however, and in near or selective is still very frail, however, and in near or selective daily and prayer.

In u slicit personal convertation to-day (Tuesday) the Commissioner, has asked "The War Cry" to convey to its many readers an expression of his deepest graditine for the tunneasured love that hus hear ansuffected towards him in his illness, the desires to think Officers, Local Officers, Soldiers, and Friends the desires to think Officers, Local Officers, behalf. Assured that his convenient and imbroken prayer on his behalf. Assured that his

He desires to thank Officers, local Officers, Soldiers, and Friends for their carnest and unbroken prayer on his behalf. Assured that his pared life is a nitrate, he wishes us to say that it is now placed more nucestready than ever before at the dispusal of God and The Army, and the control of the control

Territorial Newslete

Headquirters, Toronto.
On Sunday Aftermoon, December 14th, the Toronto Temple Band played outside the home of the Commissioner. While there, the Rev. 16th National Commissioner while the sundant state of the Commissioner with the Commissioner of the Commissioner of the Commissioner of the Commissioner of the Commissioner, came into the ring, and december of the Commissioner, came into the ring, and the members of the recovery of the Commissioner, but that he and the members of his church were causally elad. They Headquarters, Toronto. out that he and the members of his church were equally glad. They had heen praying for our Leader, and Mr. Nell himself, ever since the Commissioner's illness, has made a noint of calling at the house every Sinday morning before going to his service.

The Chief Secretary and Mrs. The Chief Secretary and Mrs. Maidntent visited Ottawa during the week-end (December 13th and 14th) and conducted the re-opening meetings of the No. 1, Citadel. We hope next week to give a detailed acco

After years of waiting, Pictor Corps is now happily in possession of its flue new Hall on Main Street. of its flue new Hall on Main Street, Amid much rejoicing, the building was opened by the Clifef Secretary on Friday, December 12th, and dur-ing the first Sunday's meetings, which were conducted by the Editor which were conducted by the Editor of "The War Cry," there were five seekers at the Mercy Seat. Of these inangural gatherings, and of the work of the Corps under Captain and Mrs. Ruston, we hope to say

Colonel Gaskin, Field Sceretary, returned to Headquarters from his Eastern campaign on Tuesday, De-cember 16th. Elsewhere in this issue is a report of some of the Colonel's

On Friday, December 10th, Lieut. On Friday, December 19th, Lieut-Colonel Turner, accompanied by Major McCillivray, is visiting Mont-real and Ottawa, to confer with Government Immigration officials with regard to child immigration, and to meet Major Jennings. Following the Council which ho enaducted on Wednesday, Decem-ber 2d, for the Officers of the In-ternational Conference of the In-der Lieut an attack of tonsilities which, we recret to saw, kent thin which, we regret to say, kept him from duly for over a week. The Colonel, however, is now back at Headquarters.

Fleadquarters. Brigadier Adby called at Terri-torial Headquarters on his return journey to Hamitton from New Ou-tario, where he had been on tour. On the same day Brigadier Hargrave left Toronto fur Halifax and St. John.

Major Frank Dyer sailed from England for Canada on December 13th, On the journey he will act as rate, the former new metric act as conductor to a party of immigrants. Major Moore, Adjutant Calvert, Ensign Layman, and Captain Ashby are at present in Kingston, conducting a special financial campaign in the interests of the new Citadel.

Captain James Edwards, who retentry went from Lannaa to mad, has been transferred from Gorakh-pur to the-Emery Hospital at Mora-dahad. Caplain Ajeet Mitchell is also engaged in medical work at the Entery Hospital at August India

Adjatant Melilliency of Peterboro has been appointed as chaplain to the Fire Department in that chy, in succession to the Rev. Mr. Ridde-furth, who has been transferred to another district.

CHIEF SECRETARY PRESENTS ADDRESS IN CITADEL—LIEUT. COLONEL REES ESCORTS HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS OVER MEN'S METROPOLE—HOSTEL FOR YOUNG WOMEN AND DIVISIONAL HEADQUARTERS ALSO VISITED—THE DUKE SENDS MESSAGE OF SYMPATHY TO THE COMMISSIONED.

oun expressed wish, several of our

Friday, December 5th, was entirely most a desire on the part of the foremost per come more intimately acquainted with Salvation Anny forem in the metropolitan city. His Royal Highness, who has remon time to time given cortain the most time to time given cortain the rimitenee, "And I, too, am a friend of The Army," he quickly redied when, shortly after his arrival of the Army, "he quickly redied when, shortly after his arrival of the Army," he quickly redied when, shortly after his arrival of the Army, "he quickly redied when, shortly after his arrival of the him and the conversation, and shortly and the property of the shortly and the shortly and the shortly and the shortly are the shortly and the shortly and the shortly are the shortly are the shortly are the shortly and the shortly are th ed upon him and, in conversation, inentioned the deep interest with which his Majesty the lamented King Edward, Queen Alexandra, King George, and Queen Mary half followed the work of our late Gen-followed the work of our late Cen-erat. On that occasion his Royat Highness also said that he hoped he might be able to serve the Movement during his stay in Canada. Accordingly, a few days before the present visit of His Royal Highnes, to Montreal, a communication from Government House was re-ceived by Brigadier Rawling saying the Governor-General would be spending two days in the city and would like while there to see some would like while there to see some of The Army's Institutions. It was finally arranged for him to lospect the Men's Metropole, the Hostel for Young Women, and the Divisional

Headquarters, the time at the Dake's disposal not permitting his driving out to the Rescue Home at (Intropout, or seeing the other lustitutions.

the Royal Highliess was due at the Metropole at 4 p.m., He arrived, arcompanied by Lieut. Colonel Fauguhar (Military Secretary) and

Captain Boseawen and Captain Graham (A.D.C.'s), rather before the hour, and was received by Secretary) and Major Hay (Super-intendent of Mes's Social Work in the city). Here, too, Colonel Maid-ment (Chief Secretary) and the Of-firers of the Institution, were introduced to His Royal Highness duced to His Royal Highness.

The tour of inspection through the Metropole began in the kitchen. A ten-cort meal was served for the Unite's examination, Lieut-Cot-onel Rees offering recessary explan-ations. His Royal Highness ex-pressed the opinion that it was an excellent meal, and before leaving the kitchen engaged the chef in con

"You have been in the Service?" enquired the Duke.

"I thought so. Any rank?"
"Ithought so. Any rank?"
"Inobardier, Sir, but I was reduced for had conduct."

Colonel Rees merrily soggested that that was a little secret, to which the Duke with a smile agreed. The party then proceeded to the fire-cent and fifteen-cent dormicor-

Yes. Sir.

The visit, which took place on Montreal.

THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S ADDRESS. OLONEL MAIDMENT, Ladies and Gentlemen,-I must thank

S. Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, Governor General of the Donision, has given further evidence of his warm sympathy with the vork of The Army by visiting, at his OLONEL MAIDMENT, Ladies and Gentiemes,—I must thank you most heartly far your kindly expressions of sympathy as regards the Duchess, which have touched me extremely the control of the co that his e reached us from all parts of the Dominion. (Applause.)

As Is as your work in Montreal is concerned, it is, I hope, unnecessary for ne to assure you of the very great interest I take in it.
One of the problems that a should ever be present in the minds of Canadians is that of their ever-increasing urban population. I am convinced that unless this problem is thought out with foresight and thoroughness, the question of slums and that of unemployables will arise here as it has arisen in Europe. This would not only be a calamily, but one that should be avoided in Canada, where so many glorious, wide, open spaces exist

After going through your various Departments, and after seeing the practical Christian way in which was constant. practical Christian way in which you cope with the various problems with which you have to deal. I consider that a visit to your Institutions here is tive sermon in abilanthrony.

a positive sermon in philanthropy.

I am particularly interested at hearing of your methods of assisting the wives and children of men serving sentences of imprisonment. In my position I bave exceptional opportunities of realizing the distress and suffering caused to innocent women and children when the bread-winner of suffering caused to innocent women and enlarent when the oread-winner of the family has, unfortunately, got into trouble as a regards your plans for the crection of a Maternity Hospital and Rescue Home. I have admittable accounts of your Grace Hospital in Winnipeg, and I earnestly hope you will soon have raised sufficient funds to exect a similar Institution here, which will have, it is to be hoped, an equally erect a similar institution ners, which will nave, it is to be noped, an equally successful history.

It wish you every success in both your present and your projected work. Should you want assistance in the latter, I feel confident that you will obtain it from the wealthy and warm-hearted inhabitants of Montreal, and that those who busy life precludes them from active participation. In your great on the property of the project of the pr and good work will, at any rate, be in a position to help you liberally ies, and to the meeting room-where, an important by-the-way, twelve men had knelt at the Mercy Sent and sought God that week.

It was then suggested that as His Royal Highness had climbed so thany stairs already he might not wish to go to the top floor; but he would not hear of such a sugges-tion. He therefore saw the euhicles which are let at $1.25 and $1.50 per week and the quarters of the single Officers.

All the time His Poyal Wighness All the time His Royal Highness was asking questions or listening to information imparted by Colonel Rees or Major Hay. In Sergeant Nieholson's rooth, for example, the Colonel hriefly outlined to the Duke our comrade's story. "You are trying to help then up all the limetic is a system of gradiation," was the imecomment of Hig Royal Highness, comment of His Royal Highness, who also enquired about the class and nationality of the men assisted by the Institution. Were there many coloured people? Were many of the men foreigners? What sale ary did the helpers receive?"—thesa and similar questions were asked.

On the way down the party pausature to the Superintenders's office.

ed at the Superintendent's ed at the Superintendents office, His Royal Highness having first dis-covered and conversed with another old Service man in the person of one of the white-jacketed orderlies. one of the wine-packeted orderies, in the office Colunel Rees told brief-ly the story of Sergeant Bloomfields, who was for the occasion on duty, at the main entrance. "You will see him on the way out, Sir," said Colonel Rees. His Royal Sir" said Colonel Rees. Jis Royal Highness was deeply interested in Bloomfeld's story.

"How did you get him right again," he film bloomyreted, Sir," tha Colonal, "We believe that the orly, power that can change a man is tha power of Almighty God!"

power of Almighty God."
"I suppose it was the drink?" was the Duke's further enquiry, reverting to our contrade's past.
(It may be said in passing that the sturies of the conversion of Sergeants Nicholson and Bloomfield have both appeared in "The War Cry" quite recently.) In the Office, too, the Prison Aid

In the Office, too, the Prison Aid Work was described by means of the story of a man who had been as-sisted on the previous day, the Duke-being shown the eart the man brought from the St. Vincent da brought from the St. Vinceut da Paul Penitrentiary, and the informa-tion supplied by the authorities concerning him.

His Royal Highness enquired as

This Royal regimes enqued as to the nam's age and offence. Adding approxingly, "That man has another chance now, and the taint of having heen to prison is gone."

"Turning to the work of Investigation and Relief, Culonel Rees said gation and Reliet, Culoner Rees said, this was carried on, as were all our efforts, without regard to creed or nationality. The Army's aim heing to make the man or the woman, "The work," continued the Colonel,

"is thoroughly organized,"
"I see, I see; it is wonderful," was "We do not give charity indis-

"We do not give charity indis-eriminately," mided the Coionel.
"And that is your strength," re-plied His Royal Highmes.

At this point of the conversation, the hap afforced the wives and chil-dren of men who are serving their ternst was mentioned. The Duke spoke with feeling of the hardship, hat often falls, upon the innocent is such instances, and expressed his (Continued on Puge 1).

(Continued un Page 11.)

Despatches Direct From The Field.

Yondon T

The launching of the Young Feople's Campaign at London I.
Mrs. Morris, assisted by the Chaucellot, Adjutant Smith and Mrs. Smith envioleted the meeting on Describes feb and mb

December oth and 7th.

On Saturday night, a splendid crowd of Young People, the Band hand other commades were present and other comrades were present, and an enthusiastic meeting was conducted by the Major. The Chan-cellor spoke on the advantage of serving God while young. A young serving God while young. A young man came forward.

On Sunday morning the Major-gave an address on 'The Value of Prayer.' In the afternoon, Mrs. Adjutant Smith spoke on the rich oung ruier.

'At night Mrs, Major Morris gave stirring address on famous Bible Four persons came for- Seat characters. Four persons came forfarmer Dendeman and his wife The ther Bandsmen gave them a hearty welcome home.

The Chancellor spoke and sang to the children at both of their meet ings. There were thirty-one at the morning service, and ninety-seven morning service, and nucety-seven hat the afternoon classes. The Jun-jor Work is going ahead under the headership of Sergeant-Major Con-cite, and the Young People's Legion is, having splendid times under Leader Viek.

Parliament Street Toronto).

Major and Mrs. Phillips, accompanied from Cadels and the Daniel College, on the Toronto College, on the Toronto College, on the C each of the addresses being intereach of the addresses being inter-spersed with quartettes, songs, and Band selections. Sixteen souls, fif-teen of whom were Young People, sought the Saviour.

The Monday, December 1st, at the service conducted by Brigader Taylor for men and boys over fif-teen vers of arc four young men.

teen years of age; four young men

London I

An address entitled "An Apos-tolic Command" was given on Wed-nesday, November 26th, by Mr. Belch, of Huron College, The oc-Belch, of Huron College, The ec-casion was the regular weekly meet-ing of the Young People (says Mrs. Bartle). Twelve Young People Ancti at the Mercy Seat, seeking light and liberty. The Hall was packed. The Young People's Lead-er, Brother Alf. Vick, is looking Taxonal base against the Years forward to a revival in the Young People's Legion.

Hamilton II.

On Sunday night, November 30th, our Songster Brigade sang in public for the first time (says J. F. W.). Four souls sought salvation, after Cantain Mortimore's address.

Captain Mortimore's address, Knee-drill on Smulay, December 7th, was led by Brother Jones, At the Holiness meeting, Adjutant Sheard of the Metropole gave on address.

In the afternoon, while Captain Mortimore visited some sick com-rades, the Band played outside the hospital. At night, after an earnest vehortation by the Adjutant, seven souls found salvation.

Ringston, Ont.
For four nonths the Soldiers have been without a permanent huiding in which to hold meetings. On Thursday and Saturday nights (says S. J. M.) the meetings are held on the street corner, and the Soldiers' and Holiness meetings are held at the Soldiers' homes, and on held at the Soldiers' homes, and on Sundaya we occupy the Ontario Hall. During our "sojourn in the wilderness," eighty sonis have pro-fessed conversion, eleven of them have knelt at the drumhead, five in have knelt at the drumhead, five in the jidl, the rest in the Ontario Hall. Last week-end (November 20th and 30th) we had with us Staff-Cap-tain Walton, when five came for-ward for-salvation. This week-end (December 6th and 7th) Capt Smith took charge of the meetings, and six souls knelt at the Mercy

The Bandsmen hold their practices in a little room over a butcher's shop: to the Bandsmen it is their "Upper room."

Moneton N B.

Week-end visit, December 6th and 7th, from Staff-Captain and Mrs. Coomlis. On Sunday morning Mrs. Coombs gave a stirring address on "Charity." At the close five com-"Charity." At the close five com-rades publicly consecrated them-settes to God, and three Joniors sought salvation.

The afternoon testimony meeting The atternoon testimony, meeting was led by Mrs. Coombs, one chorus especially catching on ("Coming this way, a mighty revival is conting this way"). There were many ter-this way"). There were many fer-tent prayers for a revival.

"At night Mrs, Coombs spoke im-pressively, and the Staff-Captain gave a salvation address. Three couls sought, salvation. Captain Addy (on furlough) and Cadet Brett assisted in these meetings. Sister-Violet Forrest, from Hallfay, is as-siving Enging and Mrs. Green in Notwithstanding a blizzard, the Band and Soldiers turned out to oper-airs all day. After the afternoon onen-sir (says Treas, Sylves) the Band gallantly marched to the Buffalo mine, where a very heighful musical service, was given, also helpful addresses by Mrs. Captain.

Snowden and Envoy Lawrence.
On Sundsy night, Captain Snowden gave an address on "Substitutes for Christianity." At the close a young lady school teacher volun-teered to the Mercy Scat, followed by a little Junior, who wept bitterly, Our Sunday night congregations of one Officer's risitation of the mines. Cartridges have been doubled, Swift Current.

On Sunday, November 30th, two young men sought/salvation,

For six weeks we have been in a Hall, which has been secured for the winter months, and during that time twenty sonts, including a number loc Holiness, have come forward. Many drunkards have tately ward. (Many drinkards have here) been saved. Humes have been changed; wife thanks God for sate, vation of her husband, who was an great drunkard. Another drink victin, who came out, prayed with tears of penitence: "Lord, you know. Teddy! Save poor Teddy's soul, for Jesus'sake, Amen." He got up with a paydoned soul and a shining face.

Ottawa II.

The Junior Campaign had a good start, and was enthusiastically taken up. Captain Turner's address on "Humiming Topa" was very novel, and had a lesson for young and old (says C. C. Smith). The Young People's Workers had charge of the night meeting, and ten souls knett at the Mercy Scat. At Saturday's meeting (December 6th) the Captain likened The Army to a "country store at home " showing that it was a place where all that was possibly required in life can be found in its different departments. He also gave us a very interesting talk on the Canadisn, American, and English "War Crys," and their rent topics.

On Sunday afternoon the Iunior Sergeant-Major gave an object les-son on a clean heart. The Salvation son on a clean heart. The Salvation meeting was led by Mrs. Captain Turner, and Mrs. Adjutant Allen. Several Juniors testified to the saving and keeping power of Jesus, and one soul surrendered.

Woodstock N. B.

Woodstock, N. B.
The farewell services of Captain and Mrs. Hall Beckett were held on December ofth and 7th. During the last week a thousand people have attended the Hall, and much blessing has resulted from the meeting. During the month the farewelling Ofhers; have been here, sksty-two converts have been made and the Captain enrolled nine new Soldiers.

A new supply of Song Books has been presented to the Corps.

On Sunday the first convert was

On Sunday the first convert was a deaf and dumb man. We were unable to make him understand our words, but as he rose from his knees with the tears pouring down his face, he pointed to Heaven and made signs, which were an eloquent testimony. Two young women and another man also kuelt at the Mercy

Peterboro, Ont.

Last week-end's meetings (No-vember aand and 23rd) were highly successful. On Saturday night, we had a splendid open-air, followed by a fine salvation meeting in the Temple.
Sunday was n red-letter day.

Crowds were good; at night we had a capacity house. Band and all sections of the Corps worked all sections of the Corps worked hard; three open-uir going at same time on Sunday might. Ten Sententian of the Sententian of the Sententian of the Mercy Seat. Three voloniters led the way to the Cross as 800n as an invitation was given. Converts and Recruits are doing well. Attendance at Junior meeting on Sunday of the Sententian of

Fort William, Ont.

Fort William, Ont.
We deeply regretted the larewell of. Captain Mirey and Lleutenant Drown, who had made on many devoted friends here by their natiring efforts for the Corps and henfit of the townspeople, but have given a warm welcome to Captain and Mra. Allan and Corps Cadet Saundays.

ders.
Out new Officers have made a good impression on Salvationists and public-alike (says W. S.) and God's approval has been shown in the salvation of souls. [How many?—Ed.] Montreal TV

Möntreal IV.

Ob. Sunday, November 50th, the mettings were led by Capain Aussin, 41 night three comraies spoke on the blessings of salvation, Captain Chapman addressed the no-saved. Four small scame forward. On the Sanday previous (says G. D.). our Band, after their night's open-air, marched to Moutreal III, new Hall (French Corps), and supported Major and Mrs. Moore in ported Major and Mrs. Moore in the opening seremony. On Sunday morning, December th Adjutant Bamilton gave a very helpful address. At night the Ad-jutant again spoke, and four sonia sought salvation. Our Publication Sergeant-Major on Sunday afternoon spoke about the Christmas 'War Cry.' Tourteen hundred conies has been our figure nundred copies has been our figure for several years past. Poblication Sergeant-Major Rogers has already made a good start by a big sale in the C. P. R. shops, where he is employed.

15.37 Uni

Harlscourt (Toronto)

Bartscourt (Foronto).
Staff-Captain and Mrs. McAnmond led the meetings on Sunday, November goth. The Holiness meeting was held in the Hall, and the afternoon and night gatherings took place in the theatre. Twentytwo Bandsmen were present at the norning meeting—a record number. The addresses of the visitors were full of help and blessing. At night, two souls sought salvatim. Both were young men who were aligned to leave the meeting.

alical to leave the meeting.

At 6.30 on Sunday evening, the first Sunday meeting for children was conducted by Young People's Sergeant-Major Bentley, fifty children heing present. Captain Works In connection with the Corps work.

Stellatton.
A visit from Major Barr for the week-end (November 2and to 23rd) was of great blessing to us (any 8 Peterson). The Major's talks reached every heart. The Major also conducted the re-enrollment of a control of the stellar stellar stellar services community.

another comrade.
Since Captain Murray took charge, several souls have sought salvation. Some are bravely taking their stand for God. Lieutenant McLaughilu is singing her way into the hearts of the people. The Godly life of our Officers has won for them a warm place in the hearts of all.

our Harvest Festival target is amasted. While Ensign Ellsworth was visiting the district (says Mr. White Ensign Ellsworth was visiting the district (says Mr. H.) the Corps was led only Mrs. Ellsworth, who conducted a haif-night of prayer on Prishly night. The power of God was felt, as to the midnight hour we project to getter and reconsecrated over the midnight hour we project to an errollment took place; and retrollment took place; an errollment took place; a vinight, three souls knell at the Cross,

St. Thomas

Licut. Colonel Turner of Toronto was with us on Sunday, December 7th. The meetings conducted by him were enjoyable and profitable. Good crowds were present. An en-rollment touk place in the afternoon, when four comrades took their stand under The Army Flag. At night, ten souls kneit at the Mercy

The Duke of Connaught.

(Continued from Page 9.)

Zacouraging Signs of Life and Pire. At Dovercourt, Toro.to, on Sun-day, December 7th, about twenty comrades came forward in the Holicontrades came forward in the Hoh-ness meeting, to re-consecrate them-selves for service. It is evident that a new spirit has fallen upon the something for them.

DOVERCOURT'S AWAKENING

Colonel Hiffe; I. H. Q. Recently appointed General Manager of the Life Assurance Society under Commissioner Carleton.

Corps since the outpouring of which Corps since the outpouring of which we have already spoken here. A Bandsman, in testifying, said that he often wished he could speak in a Holiness meeting, but had hitflerto-lield back on account of an inward consciousness that all was not well with his soul. Now, he had the assurance of full salvation. And others socke in a similar manner

An enengraging sign also was the An encouraging sign also was the reallines to testify on the part of the previous Sunday's converts. In the prayer meeting the utmost concern was manifested by Bandsguen and Soldiers for their unsanctified and Soldiers for their this anothed comrades, and amid prayers and lears and shouls of rejoicing, these were led forward. As many as six gathered around one contrade pleading with him to surrentler and it as touching to see reconciliation taking place.

In the afternoon the Young People's Workers led the meeting, the children taking part by singing together.

At night Brother Gregory said farewell, he-and his wife having heen re-accepted for Officership in England, Adjustant Osbottene spoke on "Calvary," and eight souls knelt at the Mercy Seat.

On the following Friday a Soldiers' Tea was beld, at which a welcome was extended to Adjutant and alrs. Osbourne and farewell was said to Bandsman and Mrs. Heard. who have, we understand, been ac-cepted for Officership in the United States.

When you have read this paper, please post it to a friend wise would not be likely otherwise to see a copy.

Colonel Rees suggested that Can- the Divisional Headquarters in Uniada's magistrates, indges, and prison versity Street, where Brigadier and Mrs Rawling wars introduced authorities glischarged their heavy responsibilities in the main with A few minutes later the Duke Strong feelings of humanity His nassed into the Citadel which, the Royal Highness warmly assenting, He was, he said, greatly interested in the families of the prisoners, and he was always glad to let the men out on parole whenever that was nossible Passing out of the Metronole the Duke visited the chaplain's office and the roomers' library—the Christmas "War Cry" lay on the table—and as the main enternee in front of which a crowd of interested onlookers stood waiting, shook hands with Sergeant Bloomfield and naised for a moment's conversation.

"Good-bye, gentlemen?" was His Royal Highness' last word as be en-tered his auto. "Good-bye, gentlemen! I am very much interested in your Instantion."

A few minutes later the Governor A few minutes later the Governor-deneral and his staff drove up at the entrance of the Hostel for Young Women in Catheart Street. Here the Matron, Mrs. Adjutant Knight, and the Adjutant, her husband, were introduced, and the Duke pro-ecoded to inspect the ruoms.

Seeded to inspect the ruons.

He was anxious to know how the young women found their way there, and Mrs. Knight, in reply, spoke of The Army's conducted parties of domestics, of our Officers meeting the slops and trains, and of other seedings the large meeting the steps. other societies who knew its value sending cirls to the Hostel. His Royal Highness also enquired after the artifolding it the young wo-men, the damber at present accommoderni the time they come in at uight, the meals they bad, and the prices charged.

As the Duke passed from room to room, Mrs. Kaight further spake of the young women's appreciation of the Bastel.

By now His Royal Highness had By now His Royal Dightiess had returned to the ground floor, having, as the Matrod supposed, visited all he wished to see at the Hostel. She was, however, mistaken.

"Can I see the kitchen?" enquired the Duke.

"Oh, yes, Sir, but it's in the base-

"But that does not matter at all" And down into the basement among among the stoves and pots and paus His Royal Highness went, manifesting here as everywhere the keenest interest.

"Att this must keep you very busy," he said to the Matron, on leaving: "good night, I am so glad to have mer you.

From the Hostel His Royal High-pleasure that The Army was doing ness was escorted by the Chief Sec-news of his presence having quickly spread, was almost filled with Soldiers and friends. A streamer stretched across the palisading of the callery announced its "Wolcome to our Governor-General." The Citadet Band played half a dozen bars of the National Anthem as His Royal Highness as His Royal Highness entered. Other Officers, about twenty in all, including the Editor of "The War Cry," Staff-Captain Walton, Adjutant Urouhart and Adistant stoke in French—were then intro-duced by the Chief Secretary, His Royal Highness shaking hands with each contrade Colonel Maidment and Colonel Colonel Madment and Coloner Rees afterwards accompanied the Duke to the platform, from which the Chief Secretary, representing the Commissioner and throughout the Dominion road as address, a copy of which is printed on Page Seven, and His Royal Highnese snoke in reply

The Chief Secretary's reference to the recovery of Her Royal Highness the Duchess as akad bearty appliance the whole address, in fact, giving the gathering pleasure

The Duke was hardly charged we The Duke was loadly cheered as he advanced in the handrall, The spoke with evident emotion of The Vrmy's prayers for the Duchess, and of her restoration to health sittee returning to their Canadian hone, and the gathering could not again torbear to gheer. His warm words of approval regarding the work he of approval regarding the work he had that day inspected were receiv-ed with unlimited satisfaction. The interesting function in the Citabel did not last beyond fitten or twenty minutes, but it will not soon he forgatten by those present.

As His Royal Highness left the building at a little after live o'clock. passing out through lines of stalwart white-helmered, and white-glove policemen, he assured Colonel Rees that he hall spent a most interest-ing and pleasant time with The Army, and he was grareful for the arangements that hall been made for the arrangements that had been made for his visit. (It should be said that the responsibility for these fell largely upon Staff-Captain Burrews.)

His Royal Highness also begged the Chief Secretary to convey to the Commissioner an expression of his sympathy with him in his illness and his hope for our Leader's complete AFTER MASSEY HALL

Remarkable Answer to Prayer. om Page 9.)
That the influences of the Massey ness was escorted by the Chief Secerctary and Colonel Rees round to cently_addressed_by "Fluete-Born" cently, addressed by "Twice-Dorn" men were not confined to that time and place is proved by the story of a man, who, while he idd not, get, converted, clod one of our Officers, a few dwas ago that he was so deeply impressed by the destinancies he heard that he went home to pray.

Ile was in the difficulty that he could not raise the money necessary; to bring his wife and children out: iron the Old Country and see feel from the Old Country and was feel-ing very bad over the matter. After-the meeting, however, he resolved to-ask God to help him.

A few days later, his employer-meeting him 4t the market, asked, whether he had got this wife and? children out yet. The man explain-ed that he had not not equil nor, much to his corrections of the conmuch to his regret, raise their fares: whereupon his knully employer-took out his poeket book and handed-took out his poeket hook and handed-him the required sum.

"Here's the money," he said, "and; five dollars over for yourself; get, them, unt as quickly as you can,"

Sister Mrs. Hav.

Sister Mrs. Hay, of the Dover-court Corps, Toronto, has been at member of the League of Mercy for the past eight years, and has done-much good work among the poor, and the sick in various institutions. and the seek in various Institutions... For three years she regularly visited the House of Industry, holding: meetings with the immates, district buting "War Crys," and doing little-practical services for the old folks. Then she was transferred to the Their she was transferred to this visiting staff at the Home for Insurables. In conjunction with the cultur members of the League, she visits this Institution once a week to speak and to pray with the patients. They look forward to they visits of the sisters, and The April Hierature is also very welcom. A photo of the Toronto League. Marc Cry together with an interesting article describing the many. Mrs. Hay was mabble to be present when the group was taken.

More Christmas "Wer Cry" Valients: (1) Adjutant Poole (Chatham), sold 1,000 copics; (2) Adjutant Ash (London I.), 1400; (3) Ensign Merritt (Victoria), 1,102; (4) Captar "- "h (Kingston), 1475; (5) Adjutant McDénald (Edmonton), 1,000, Aurora.

A large crowd gathered in the Hall on Tuceday night, Nov. 25th, when a lecture, entitled "The Life, Death, and Burial of the Late General Booth," was given by Captain Houd of Brampton, assisted by Bro-ther D. Thomas of the same Corps. The lecture and the magnificent views were greatly enjoyed by a select audience. The proceeds were views were greaty enjoyed by a select audience. The proceeds were in aid of a fund for the purchase of electric lights for the Hall. Captain

Martin is leading on.

Staff-Captain Bloss conducted a recent week-end here, A great adyange has been made in the altendance at the meetings, and this was well shown during the series of mixetings. The Staff-Captain gave powerful addresses, and told some of his interesting experiences.

his interesting experiences.

At hight a good crowd gathered in the Hall, and a young man knelt at the Mercy Seat, making the twelfth soul to surrender in three

Prince Albert.

On Thursday, November 11th, Major McLean and Adjutant Bris-Major McLean and Adjutant Bris-tow were here. In the afternoon they visited the jail, and conducted a helpful meeting. At night, in our Hall, the Major spoke on "Miraeles, Past and Present." A little girl Past and Present." A little girl knelt at the Mercy Seat. Two souls surrendered on Sunday night, and one in the Jall on Sunday night, and one in the Jall on Sunday norming. On, Mouday a backstider sought pardon. It in a recent meeting with the women in jail, two came forward for salvation.

Last weck-end (November 20th and 30th there were three captures in the Hall and Jail meetings. One of the seekers (says Sister Hazard) had resisted God's spirit for months. Ensign Andrew is leading on.

Rhodes Avenue (Toronto).

Rhodes Avenue (Toronto).

Captain and Mrs. Wilson report that in three weeks, twenty-three souls have knelt at the Mercy Scat, for salvation and holiness, A mother For salvation and holiness, A mother and her daughters were among the seekers on a recent Sunday. On November 30th, the Young People's Sergeant-Major and Local Officers Sergeant-Major and Local Officers led the meetings, and six Young People knelt at the Mercy Scat. Tuesday night's meeting was also led by the Young People's Workers. Two surroders for salvation were made during the meeting, and two affer it had closed, the Captain having to return to the Hall and light. in order to help the seekers Belle Isle. We have said farewell to one of our Soldiers. Sister Edna Wilcox, who has gone to the St. John's Training College. In her farewell meeting several comrades, including ther father, spoke of her faithfulness (1893, R. B.). At the close one soul

Anoght God.
On Sunday, November 9th, six souls came for salvation, and on November 16th, five surrendered, and others during the week.

On Wednesday alght we had our annual banquet. One of the features of the evening was the nusic from our new Band, which made its first public appearance on that night.

Fredericton, N. B.
During the last two weeks a num-her of souls have found the Saviour. On Sunday, December 7th, five per-Rona knelt at the Mercy Seat. S. Ronday night they came and gave God the glory. A number of young people have recently found the aviour.

The Band is going ahead, led on Bandmaster Ward. Bandsman regory has been welcomed, and is taken up first trombone.

In The Better Land.

Susanna G. sling, Burin, Nfld.

Our comrade passed peacefully away on November 14th, writes Ensign Tuek, at the age of seventyfour. She had been a Soldier of this Corns for a number of years and did good service for God and The Army, Converted at the age of eightern she ment her life for God and died with the blessed assurance that all was well.

We gave her an Army funeral, which was attended by many friends.
Our sister leaves behind six sons and Our sister leaves behind six sons and two daughters. Two of her sons, Thomas and Richard, and their wives, are active Soldiers of this Corps, while another is Adjutant Joseph Gosling of Vancouver. Recalling the influence of his mother upon his own life, the Ad-intant says he never knew her when she was not converted. If a never she was not converted. He never knew the day in his home when family prayer was not offered. He has heard his mother pray for them as many as twelve and fourteen times a day, and his principal mem-ory of her is of her care for them, when she used to gather them around her, talk to them of the love around her, talk to them of the love and power of Jesus, and read the Scripture. "She taught us also to reverence the Sabbalh," continued the Adjutant, "but, oh, her prayers! I shall never forget the feeling that used to steel over me when I would to God for me.

"Her attitude towards us when we were wrong and deserving of cor-rection has also left an abiding im-pression in my mind. We saw what it meant for her to correct us.

"My mother was always quiet and "My mother was always quiet and unassuming, but she would pray and speak in the meetings in her own way. She was very cheerful and would never believe anything bad about a man or woman of God,"

From the Adjulant we learned that his father died three years ago. "He became a Soldier in the Corps when I left for the Field twentywhen I left for the Field (wenty-net) years, ago (says the Adjutant); he used to attend the meetings, and both he, and mother were convert-ed; they were in fact even then Sol-diers all but in name and uniform. When I left for the Field, however, father became enrolled. "I can't hear to see Ioe's place vacant on the platform,' he said."

Aaron Tilly, Clarenville,

Our comrade was called to his reward at the early age of twentynine, writes Lieutenant Monster. For about six years he suffered with consumption, but was not forced to keep to his bed till about three weeks previous to his death.

weeks previous to his death.

On the second Sunday night after the arrival of the new Officer, our brother was able to attend the meeting, and there he got con-meeting, and there he got con-certed.

During his final sickness, when visited by the writer, he was al-ways found waiting patiently for the call. When dying he left a bright testimony behind that he was going to be with Jesus.

The funeral service was conduct-ced on November 14th, by Adjutant Sainsbury, and the memorial ser-vice was held the following Sunday, vice was held the following Sunday, Lieutenant Monster giving the ad-dress. Two comrades sang "Wc'll never say good-bye in Meaven." Our sympathy and prayers are with the bereaved ones.

Sister Mra. Foshsy, St. John III.

Sister Mra. Roshny, St. John III.
We have recently been called upon to part with one of the comrades of this Corps, Mrs. Foshay(writes Captain Spearing). Our slater autfored very much during the last year, and was not able to at-last year, and was not able to atcent meetings very regularly on, tend meetings very regularly on,

tend meetings very regularly on,
the second testimony behind.
When visited by the SergeantMajor two nights before she passed away, our comrade, expressed her confidence in God, and her trust in life Word that the SergeantMajor that the SergeantMajor that the SergeantMajor that the Sergeantthat was very peaceful for our had read to her. The end came sud-denly, but was very peaceful for our sister. It can be truthfully said "She fell saleep in Jesus."

We held a memorial service on the following Sunday night, which was largely attended. Three souls' found parion, among the number was targely attended. Three souls found pardon, among the number being the husband of our promoted comraile. May God comfort and keep him.

TORONTO

Salvationists, Attention!

The Trade Department is undertak-ing to supply the Men and Women's Institutions throughout Canada in Household and Otherwise.

And in this connection will be able

Officers, Married Soldiers, & Others

Who are cordially invited to visit

ADDRESS: 15 GOULD STREET-Int Of Votre: five minutes' walk from the Temple.

Dec. 27, 1913.

Chester (Toronto). On Saturday, December 6th, Staff Bandsman E. P. Gray, by means of skilful and rapid erayon sketches, drew a number of interesting lessons from the recent disaster on the great lakes, "Unheeded Signals" was the title of the service: the Hall was the title of the service; the Hall was crowded. The artist also drew in colours a sketch of our present General, and this was received with great applause. Not a soul moved until 10 p.m., when the meeting closed.

closed.

In connection with the recent visit of Brigadier dedicated to God the child of Brother and Sister Dobson, in the night meeting, when over three hundred persons were present A convert of the morning's sent. A convert of the morning's meeting was among the fishers who assisted during the night meeting. Mrs. Hrigadier Taylor and Captain Snelgrove also took part.

-Captain Parsons recently informed

"The War Cry" that during his twelve months as a Field Officer he ins kept a Praying List, and that in that period he has had the joy of taking off thirty-one stames, for in thirty-one instances his prayers had been answered.

Picton, Ont.

Week-end meetings, November 29 and 30, were held in the Business College. The visit of Brigadier Rawling and Adjutant Allen drew large crowds.

The lantern service on Saturday night was interesting and profitable. A packed audience was deeply moved as the scenes from the life and glorious finish of the late General were thrown on the screen.

On Sunday afternoon, while on the march, Brigadier Rawling callthe march, Brigadier Rawling eall-ed a halt opposite our new Hall, and requested Adjutant Allen to pray and thank God for its completion. After, thirty years of fighting, the Corps now has a beautiful home of its own. The building is voted by the citizens as a credit to the main street.

On Sunday night, four backsliders knelt at the Mercy Seat.

During the last mouth twenty-seven souls have sought salvation, and many comrades have come forward to reconsecrate themselves. A ward to reconsecrate themselves. A Songster Brigade has been formed during that time. Brother Bert Baldwin of Walthamstow, Eng., is tic leader. The Brigade, as is the Band, is doing excellent service. The Christmas "War Cry" is a treat, and in our opinion (says J. Z.) surpasses every previous issue.

One thousand copies were not nearly enough: another live hundred Westellie M. S.

A united meeting on Monday night, December 1st, was well at-tended. Captain and Mrs. Sproude of New Glasgow, were in charge, assisted by the Stellarton and West-vilke Officers.

The week-end meetings, December The week-end meetings, December of the and 7th, were conducted by Captain, and Mrs. Raymer. The Captain's subject for the Sunday's meetings was "A Christian." A backslider returned to God.

Cedar Cottage (Vancouver III.). On Sunday, November 23rd, the meetings were led by Staff-Captain and Mrs. Crichton. In the Holiness and Mrs. Crichton. In the Hollness meetings woo souls consecrated themselves to God. At night four Young People sought Jeaus.

Sunday, November 30th, was a day of great thessing. Gond crowds of Young People attended all the meetings, and twenty Juniors and two adults sought salvation.

The General's First Year's Leadership.

make the following extracts from a review of General Bram-well Booth's leadership, which appeared in a recent issue of the British "Waw Cry" and deals more fully with the subject than was possible in our own review published in Canada's Memorial Number:

The General's first year's leadership of The Army has been a very The General's first year's leadership of The Army has been a very stemuous time, and signalized by many maintestations of Divine favour. In both labour and blessing, Mrs. Booth has equally shared. During the tredve months under review The General bas conducted on an average three meetings per week, with congregations that bare varied from 1,000 at Sobiler's meetings. Bandsmen's Councils, etc., to 3,000 at the Olympia Hall; 1,000 at the Royal Albert Hall, and 10,000 at the King's Garden. Copenlangen, with enormous-conference at the Sodertege Canap meetings (Sweden). He an average congregation of 3,000 persons be struck for each of the 17st services conducted by The General, we have a rotal of for each of the 138 services conducted by the General, we have a total of, 25,000 persons who have had preached unto them by him the good tellings of the present of the conduction of the con In the various towns visited by The General and Mrs. Booth they be received the warmest of welcomes. Usually the Chief Magistrate of the community presides at The General's Sunday atternoon lecture; and, naturally enough, striking tributes are paid to the Founder of The Army; hat kind and outspoken expressions of confidence in the present Leade are also freely uttered are also freely uttered.

Shortly-before leaving England for his Canadian-American Campaign
The General uset in Council all the Field Officers of the United Kingdom, and for spiritual power, practical consideration of War problems, enlausiann, and unity of purpose, these Councils—held in foor centres—have never been surpassed, say the older Officers of the Brishis Field.

On the continent of Europe and in the United Kingdom the Councils of Staff and Field Officers have abundantly demonstrated that the extra-

STARTING LIFE AT 62!

Peter Derose's First Days of Free-

Peter Derose's First Days of Free-dom Alter ay Years in Prison
—With The Army,
The man Derose, whose release from Kingston Penitentiary was mentioned in a recent issue, and who is now in care of The Army, last one difficulty—that of getting used to conditions of life as he finds them after twenty-seven years be-

them after twenty-seven years be-hind prison walls.

Only once in all that time was be-ever outside the prison, and then the junney was merely to the Gov-erant's house across the road. Not since 1886 had he seen a newspaper, the had never seen an electric street lle had never seen an electric street car, nor the electric light, and at his first sight on leaving prison of a group of children, he clapped his hands for joy, "They book so funny to me," he said. "I haven't seen a child for so many years."

Briefly, the story of the crime of which he was found guilty and sometised to be hanged it as follows.

the was prospecting in the British Colombia gold fields, and got into a quarrel with a man with whose death be was charged. The sentence of de the anon. Derose was changed to imprisonment for forty years, and he was taken to Kingston Penisteps were recently taken to have him released, and it was on the un-derstanding that some religious body would take him in charge and give him employment that he was parol-cal. The Arme (as "The Globe" says)

Adjutant McElheney, Peterporo, Christmas "Cry" Order, 1,000.

cd. The Army (as "The filohe" says) was the first to come forward, and he is now working in one of our Christmas "Cry" Sales: Ensign Bunton (Guelph), 2,000; Ensign Thompsen (Hamilton III.), 2,000; Captain Turner (Ottawa II.), 2,000.

Industrial Institutions. As stated in centered the hall, for the first Ses-Industrial Institutions. As stared in emerced the hall, for the first Seaarprecious "Wart City," The Army's Prison Officer, Major Fraser, who note Demos at the penjieminary on the day of his release, has been in touch with him for ten earse.

A few days ago an Officer tool, firm to a Zone, where the old man got as much real enjoyment and the seeing the animals as the youngers.

who swarmed around the eages.

In the penitentiary. Derose had as his friend for several years, a tabby cat, which got into the peniand made friends with the agent con-viet. In saying good-hye to his pet tallby, Derose got another convict to promise that he would be good to the eat as long as he was able. One of his chief desires on getting

One of his chief desires on getting his freedom was to see a skyseraper. He had been in New York when they were talking of building them.

friend). He needs inst what you will give him to-day-sympathy, af-fection, and the knowledge that you are one with him and are praying tenuary in some mysterious way, for hun. . . . I am ready to and made friends with the agod constant and be counted with you, although you no longer need men outside your ranks to defend you. The world knows you now, and your work speaks for you.

I have just had a very gracious half-hour will your General, in whose face f see the face of his father.

The first General is dead, ordinary affection for, and confidence in the new Leaders manifested on their accession to supreme command by The Army in these countries had nothing diminished, but had rather interested in ferrour.

All round the world during the last year The Army has been advancing In order that The General and the Chief of the Staff may be provided with an unfailing barometer whereby the rise or decline of any part of The Army outside the British Territory may be noted, there are records kept in the Foreign Office of what are terried "vital statistics." They number seventien them, and, almost without exception, each shows a substantial increase during the past twelve months. Corps, Officers, Soldierabile, emergegations, financet, Social Institutions, bave all advanced under high new General.

The increase in strength, however, has, perhaps, been most marked in the United Kingdom, where not only on the British Field, but in the Men's and Women's Social Operations there have been remarkable

The first year of The General's leadership has been characterized by his entarking upon two outstanding and impressive enterprises. One is the execting of Memorial buildings to the memory of the Founder of The Army. In several countries these will take the form of Training Colleges, in others Social listitutions, and it is estimated that by means of this schemes—which it is but fair to say was practically forced upon The General by the friends and admirers of The Army's Founder—the Organization

ing the reference and admirers of the Army's Pointer—the Organization will benefit in material possessions by about a million steriler and include help and admired and admired by the desired intention to send a thorstonal Missionaries to leathen lands within the next for years. One hundred of these have already been dispatched from the United Kinglom, and a second contingent is now being prepared, chiefly in Scandinavia.

By the foregoing it will be seen that our Leaders, The Army, and the great multitude of friends who wish us well for the Kingdom's sake, have much in he thankful for in the tokens of Divine favour that God has been graciously pleased to bestow input The General and Mrs. Booth. Let us pray that in The General's coming campaigns the God of his father may be mightly with him.

and he was taken to Kingston Pent-tentiary. Part of the journey to Kingston was made in a prairie schooner across a section where the C. P. R. was first being built. relatives. Ite is a French-Canadian, born in Quebec, and speaks French well. He is wistfully looking for-ward to a full pardon. With The Army he will be given a chance to "make good" for the rest of his earthly life and for eternity. At the penientiary, Derose was a well-behaved prisoner, and soon was made a "trusty"—a kind of gnard over others. As he was the oldest prisoner in abat institution. MR JOHN WANAMAKER AND THE GENERAL.

Pleasing Incident at New York Staff

Derose as far as he knows has no

salation Its is a Branch Counding

Semarkable influences attended The General's Staff Council in New

The General and the Communiter

son and daughter here on the plat-form, and in you, his little children, Aren't you proud of your family? —you ought to be?" Mr. Wanamaker then withdrew.

Ar. Wanamaser tuen witnerew. Closing the Council on the last day. The General said, "I see wou-derful signs among you, that make me feel that you are about to move forward in a wonderful way." With the prayer that these signs may not iai, and the singing of "God he with you till we meet again," you fit we meet again, the corner was brought to an end, every one present realizing a keen sense of the heartful ties that bound heart to heart in this the closing function of The General's remarkable campaign in the United States of America.

Dildo. On a recent Friday, in the Young People's Hall, a demonstration was Officer in charge, has started the Young People's Logion.
On Shuday night the Hall was

Shelburne, N. S.
During our Officers' absence at Congress, Rev. G. R. McKran (Presbyterian) gave the addresses on both Sundays. On Sunday, November 23rd, after an address by Capi, Hardy, ave souls sought God.

Captain Walton.
On Tuesday, December 9th, our Divisional Commander, Hrigadier Rawling gave us the illustrated lecture of the life of the late General, sture of the life of the late General-We had as crowded Hall, and many-who had not been to The Army for a long time were present. Our, converts are taking their stand; and during last month two more cosmices were corrolled as Sol-dlera. Captain M. Thompson is the "Gomanning Officer."

New Waterford, C. B. Ensign Beecraft, accompanied by the Sydney Mines Pand, spent the week-end, November 20th and 30th with us (says D. W. G.). The Band gave a funcional service on Saturday-night in the Star Theatre. On Sun-day afternoon a large crowd came to see and hear the Band, which gave another musical programme. Brother-Foster's solos were greatly enjoyed.
In the salvation meeting, Ensign Becerot spoke on "What Must I Do to Be Saved" and two souls surrendered.

During the week-end, November Both joth, we had with us Captain Van der ven (says R. S. H.). His Becture, given in Dutch costume; on Halland, was much enjoyed, and on Monday night, we were treated to lancer lecture. On the Thursday night following, three backslidgers sought God. The Officers and -comrades have been praying for

Prince Albert,

A backslider came back to God
Tast Wednesday, Ensign Andrew and Bandsmen dealt with him after and Ballashiel dentt with filling after the meeting; a sad story was his. On Friday (says Sister Hazard) a good meeting at jail, also on Sun-day morning. On Sunday night, the Enaign's subject, "How long digit ve between two opinions of One soud knelt at the Mercy Seat.

Port Hope, Ont.
Since the arrival of Capitan Me-Lingua 202 Licutenant Anger, a number of sinners have songlet salvation, and others have been sanctified. We again have Friday night Holiness meetings, which (says M. D.) are proving a great help. We have labo started Couptony meetings, and a Junior meeting is held on Wedmesday afternoon.

Seaforth.

On Sunday, November and, we esaid farewell to Lieutenant Porter, who was here for six months. The ings all days were well attended. On Tuesday night the final fare-well took place, and three souls kinel; at the Cross. The Licutement (asy4 W. H. H.) has gone to assist at Leamington.

Forest.

Oil Thursday night, December 14th, Adjutant Smith of London gave us his lantern lecture on "Wonders and Workers of Newfoundiant." We had a crowded Hall, and good-fininges. Capital Ward of: Thed-lord assisted the Adjutant.

Old grove "War Cry"; we have sold out. [And ordered more?—Ed.]

Simeoe, Ont.

During a recent week, twentywe couls come out for salvation We marched out twenty-six strong Sinday, November 30th, Two sult of recent open-air meetings.

Flappy in Serving Others.

OFFICERS RESOLVED TO CLEAR DEST RATHER THAN BUY CHRISTMAS DINNER PROVIDING FOR THOSE FAR FROM HOME

ik lat Christman an an to shade and ofelooks a friend Arrily Officer came while I was a Lleuten-while I was a Lleuten-rant in my first appoint-tient. The work was hard, and the Hall, a new one, not being clear of debt, the Captain and myself resolved that every cent we At about one o'clock, a trend knocked at the door, and with the remark, "Mother wants you to sample her Christmas pudding," handed me a plate. About five handed me a plate. "About fare minutes later one of our sister com-rades came in, and placing a cov-ered dish on the table, said: "I have just brought you the legs of our Christmas goose." only get above what was necessary for the running expenses of the Curps, should be used to help pay off the debt.

After thanking God for rewarding our faith we sat down to the For the Christmas Day we planned a Band of Love demonstration with a view of raising some extra Christmas dinners I ever helped to

with a view of raising some extra pioney for that particular purpose. So busy had we been, and—per-lage the most important reason— so short of personal funds for the purpose were we, that we had not made any preparation for a Christ— Since my marriage a number of years ago, my husband and I have always planned to have a few people who becomes to be for from who happen to be far from home and loved ones, to take their Christians dinner with us. When in Corps. Work we would gather in the single nen of the Corps, and when in Social appointments we always findenough to fill the table who would otherwise have to eat in a boarding least as rectulating. mas dinner; we believed the Lord would send us one. So sure indeed that we did not accept any of the invitations we received, explaining to our friends that we desired to take our meals at the Quarters that house or restaurant.

Last Christmas, a young man who is of a roving nature told us at dinner that it was the first time After breakfast was cleared away on Christmas morning, we had only the heel of a loaf left, by the careful in fourteen years that he had caten entting of which we could make a entting of which we could make a slice fur each of us.

Before I tell you how our dinner came, I want to say that no person but ourselves knew our cupboard was as near as old Mother Hub-noise.

God had abundantly provided kind friends and good things, and we find this a very happy way of helping to celebrate the birthday of His dear, Son.

bard's.

Twelve o'clock struck, and our little table was set, with the small portion of bread laid no; and while His dear-son.

Surely He who does not forget the enp of cold water given in His name will continue to bless these small efforts put forth for His sake. waiting for dinner to arrive, we got busy preparing for the coming demonstration.

The Childhood of Jesus.

[In our Christmas issue we gave the first portion, dealing with the earliest infancy of the child Jesus, of this instructive article.—[1d.]

more diament we believed the Lord

AS the day went by the lowly-nother would teach the Child sone verses of the Seriptures by heart. The earliest of these were texts prochiming the nully of God: "Thou shall love the Lord thy God with thy whole soul, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole sering the "from Denteronous", and similar texts. These learn, she would teach Him others, bidding Him Join His little hands in prayer every morning, and to repeat to Hisearly worthing, and formered access the man which the Jew said every morning and evening of his life: "Hear, O strack, the Lord alone is God. Thou shalt love Him whilt while soul, for ever, His commandments shall be always in the heart; in the louse; when thou shalt set out un a Journey; when the louse is the louse is the louse is the louse is a lourney; when the louse is the lourner when Father a shortened form of the sa-

the Nazareth cottage.

THE saying of the Schema was not binding upon a Jowish child until his logal manhood," when he was twelve years of age. But it was tweete years or age: but it was taught and practiced as anni as a haby boy could lisp the words.

Besides the hig phylacterics, or prayer hands, that the Pharisees so exaggerated as to call forth rebuke from Christ, the Jews had small strips of parelment for the use of children, on which were insertised artiking pasages of the Law, words of the prophets, and great deeds those under the guidance of God. We can picture Joseph, when his day's words was done, on or the Sahath, Hiller has been been as the control of the contro like an devour Jews, Mary and macph would have fastened over fleir door a tiny scroll of parchiment containing, in twenty-two lines, two passages from Deuteronomy; the first (Deut. 9:4, 9), upon the love of God; the second (Deut. 11:13-41) deposits the blessitus that falls. of God; the second (Dent, 11:13-21) ideclating, the blessings that follow obedience to His law. The writing was put in a white metal case and malkel over the doorway well in sight. Every one who entered or went out touched it reverently, and Mary would hold the Child, up and went out touched it reverently, and Mary wandd hold the Child up and teach Him to stretch out His hands to it. Joseph would explain the meaning of this practice, and repeat to Him the words in the case.

EVERY Subbath, Joseph lind to explain the origin, excellence, and duties of the seventh day to the little Boy, and, as the festivals and little Boy, and, as the desired and the Passover came around, the meaning of the feasts, the unleav-ened hread, the bilter heist, the imposs chant, and the mystery of the Laub. And He meckly learnt the Law who was "the fulfilling of the Law."

Capasia see alt. Major have farecolled after meatly reduce months and here meatly reduce months and here. Their good work is today bening fruit. Capasian Mc-Kerrey and Lieutenant. Sistens here welcomed, and eleven Sentors and twelve Young People have already sought shaving. On Noyomber 39th, five breat at the Mercy Sea. The Rev. Mr. Sectum.

ficers' welcome meeting.

On Sunday, November 30th, the meetingse were led by Ensign Bourne, assisted by Adjutant Magee (late of Brandon) and Brother Oxby (late of Brandon) and Brother Oxby, of Moose Jaw.

Our night meeting was crowded, and five souls found pardon and salvation at the Mercy Seat, A husband and wife were among those who surrendered. The husband first found peace, and then led his wife, who had been a backslider for three years, to the Mercy Seat, and both went home rejoicing.

Dunnville.

In response to an appeal made by our Officers, the conrades and, friends of the Corps gave twenty large Song Books for use in the meetings. The benefit of their gift was experienced on Sunday, when we had good congregational singing. On Sunday, December 7th, test souls knelt at the Mercy Seat. Three sought the blessing of a clean heart in the morning, and seven came for pardon at night.

Lindsay.
On-November 19th and 20th wo beld our Annual Rummage Sale, and by the co-operation of our friends and Soldiers, we seemed good finaneial results.

Our Band of twelve players is doing well; the Songster Beigide, making good progress under the leadership of Sister Corrie Lindsay. On Sunday night, after Captain trainwell's address, five souls knelt at the Mercy Seat.

Dundan

Dundas.
Juntor Campaign started well. On Sunday, November 30th, ten Young People knelt at the Mercy Seat; mostly all were volunteers. Good People knell at the Mercy Seat; mostly all were volunteers. Good crowds attended the meetings. At night, Junior Locals took part, and a special effort made for the salva-tion of the young, On Sunday after-tion of the young, On Sunday after-tion the Hand went to play in. a sick comrade (Sister Mrs. Davy) with has almost reached fourseore

St. Mary's.

On Tilesday, November 25th, we started a series of Cottage meetings. Two have already been held; a soil seeking, fold, in each meeting.
We had record attendances during the week-end. Open-air rally on Sunday hight, seventeen; indoors, sixty (wh) Sunday afternoon two children were dedicated by Captain

New Liskeard: West week-end, November 220d Last week-end, Sovemer 27th and 23rd, two souths sought salva-tion. The following week-end we had with us Secretary and Mrs. Hill from Cobatt who led the meetings, which closed with five south at the

On November 29th and 30th, we had with its Brigadier Adby. On Saturday hight he gave his hustern service to at good audience. Sun-

Current Events

THE WAR CRY

thing now pierces Mount Royal, the sistential and within a year pasper year, distributed in less than seger trains will be tunning through it.

The rapid boring of this tunnel has established a new record for the American Continent. Only fifteen American. Continent. "Only fifteen mouths have elapased since work was arst began in it. With the exception of certain of the Swiss, untels, where the beadings are much smaller and the rocks softer, the achievement of the Canadian. Northern engineers is a world's record.

Mount Royal Tunnelled.
A tunnel three and one third miles

7 c. 27 1011

The Oucest and Miners' Wives

The Queen larry has a warm place in the hearts of the wives of British mines by her kindness of beart. In a letter written by John Wilson, see-erary of the Darrham Miners Assogiation, he points out numerous instances of the Queen's kinemess of heart and the gracious magner in which she insisted upon going par-ticularly to the bedsides of those who were ill, comforting them with the pressure of her band or some the pressure of her hand of some tender words. She showed keen admiration of the way in which kit-chens and bedrooms were kept, and often the smallest article of furniure or convenir artracted such pleasing attention that the Queen fistantly won the affection of the Bible Output of Century.

Statistics recently given to the Press by a careful investigator show the remarkable growth of the work of Bible Societies during the st limited years.

From 1804 to 1817 the total issue of Bibles, Testaments, and portions of Scipture in Europe and America was about three millions, an average of less than a quarter million copies per year, distributed in less than seventy languages. At this day the various Bible So-cieties, of which there are about eighty, whose work is to publish and circulate the Bible without note or comment, issue the book in over five hundred languages, and the total circulation under whose auspices now aggregates about eighteen million copies per year.

Then there are the issues of the Then there are the issues of the Bible and portions thereof by pri-vate publishing firms, estimates of which have now been gathered for the first time. These add ter million copies to the annual output, More than half the grand total of twenty-eight million copies a River Rhone Diverted.

Quietly, and without any cere-mony, a splendid engineering feat has been brought to a conclusion at Brigue, where Swiss engineers bave diverted the bed of the Rhone wave diverted the bed of the Rhone over a distance of about a mile. The waters of the Rhone have been turned from the old bed into the new channel of stone and concrète. The ancient bed will be filled with the debris from the second Simplen tunuel, which is now being nompleted, and on the new site on completed, and on the new site several more permanent rusys will be constructed for freight traffic.

Since the opening of the Lotsehberg tunnel, and with the traffic through the principal Simplon tunnel ennstantly increasing, it has been found that the station at Brigue is too small to cope with the inter-national service, and hence the innovation—a large river giving place to

Canada's Tea and Coffee Bill

During the last year Canadians' have drunk over uine million del have drunk over uine million dol-lars' worth of tea and coffee, esti-nating the cost at wholesalers' price of importation. Retail prices price of importation. Retail prices for both commodities are practically double importers' prices, and con-sequently the actual amount paid out for tea and coffee last year by cousumers was approximately eight-cen million dollars.

Fea is still the family beverage Tea is still the family beverage of Canadians, but importations during recent years show a rapid grawth of the coffee habit. The value of the tea importations last year was $6,801,200, att increase of $13,93,13. Coffee to the value of $2,416,162, was imported, an increase Stole "Stage" Money.

Alt Austrian who has been in Canada only a short time saw a tempting display of advertising money displayed in a store window in Toronto. Thinking that the hills were real ones he formed a plan to get possession of them. Returning home he proceid a heavy wreach, and in the early morning hours he smashed the store window, grabbed an armful of the greenbacks and ran. The police very soon eaught

A Toronto paper made an excel-lent comment on this. It said:— The poor, ignorant foreigner who stole an armful of counterfeit maney from a Yonge Street store window was, after all, and much less facting in intelligence than other crooks. For all the good that stolen money does the averege thied it, might as well be stage

An Aged Emperor.

An event which is unique in the world's history was recently celebrated in Austria, namely the 65th anniversary of Eniperor Francis Joseph's ascent to the throne. The Enipetor is said to be in excellent health, though he is an oetogenar-ian. During the Balkan war the aged monarch worked twelve hours a day, and he still keeps a close grip on the situation.

ti2,000 ponuds, valued at $30,000. The United States was the best The United States was the best costomer for poultry, During October that country took $21,000 worth, and the smallest customer was Newfoundland, with $8 worth,

A Costly France

A Costly Error.

Ferhaps the most colossal error that has ever occurred in the history of stamps happened in the U. S.

To commemorate the opening of four values was prepared; the one cent, five cent, and ten cent appeared, and it was found that the pie-ture on the two-cent stamp was a view of the San Pedro Miguel Locks instead of the Gatun Locks, through the stamp was inscribed with the hiter name.

The Government immediately withdrew the whole printing, consisting of over twenty million stamps, and destroyed them. The new printing shows the view of San Pedro Mignel, but is in-seribed "Panama Canal."

Seasonable Suggestions.

General's Photo Calendar, aoc Songster Regulation Harps Sungater Lyre Pins.....toc S. A. Monogram Pint . roc "Twice-Born Men," cloth-bound. Postpaid. 60c Bar Broc .es400 Silver Badgesoc White Metal Badge 250 "Life of GeneralBooth," by Commissioner Railton, Postpaid85c Scripture Post Cards, by H. Copping, packet, postpaid, 200

Soldiers' Guides, 35c, 50c, 75c

HOLMAN'S TEACHERS' BIBLE, 4,000 answers an questions, a beautiful gift. Sale price. $1.75 Postpaid $1.85

Reliance Pen, self-filler, $2.50 Privates' Caps, sizes 63/4 to Cap Bands, Privates' 25c Statt350 "Orher Sheep," by Begbie, clothbound, postpaid....600 Band Caps, 636 to 714...$2.25 Staff-Captain S's.....700 Adjutant S's..................60c Ensign S's.....50c Song Books, black cover, yapp Morocco cover, yapp edge, 75c Ditto, small print750 Song Books, small print, soc

SPLENDID VARIETY OF SCRIPTURE TEXTS.

AGENTS WANTED-Men or Women Write for Particulars to TRADE SECRETARY.

ARMY SONGS

1 Tunes.—Give me a heart, 32:
Nativity, 51.
Give me a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free

A heart that always feels the Blood.

Chorus, Give me a heart like Thine!

A humble, lowly, contrile heart, Believing, Irue, and clean, Which neither life nor death can part'
- From Him that dwells within,

A heart in every thought renewed, And full of love divine; Perfect and right, and pure and good, A copy, Lord, of Thine.

Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart, Come quickly from above; Write Thy new name upon my Thy new best name of Love.

Tune Wonderful Words of Life I've heard of a Saviour whose 2 I've heard of a Saviour whose love was so strong,
He loved a poor sinner like me;
He turned His back on the glorified throng,

To save a poor sinner like me.
The angels they sang Him from

Glory,
Pm glad that they told me the story;
He came from on high, to suffer and

To save a poor sinner like me.

Chorus.

My sins rose as high as a mountain,
They all disappeared in the Foun-

He put my name down for a palace and crown,

Bless His dear name, I'm free! This wonderful Saviour took such

This wonderful Savioni took sach a low place, To save a poor sinner like me; His heart overflowing with wondrous grace,

To save a poor sinner like me;
Was born in a stable and manger,
In like wow world was a stranger,
With all things did part to win my hard heart, And saved a poor sinner like me,

Tunes.—Mothers of Salem, 252; Song Book, 97. Oh, come, come away, Ye sinners are invited

A feast to share, so now prepare; Oh, come, come away! No longer do excuses make, But every sinful way forsake, And the heavenly feast partake, Oh, come, come nway!

Oh, come, come away, Forsake your old companions: They trend the path that leads to wrath; Oh, come, come away!

Oh, come, come away!
Bid sin and lirends of sin farewell,
No longer run with them to hell,
But haste with saints to dwell,
Oh, come, come away!

Oh; come, come away, He saytour now is waiting;
He will receive all who believe;
Ob, come, come away!
And in the world field he your Priend,

Rriend, Hell love and keep you to the end, Then to Heaven you shall ascend; Oh, come; come away!

8805. BARKEN, OLAV TORKILD-NN. Norwegian, age 22, medium height, Coming Events.

THE CHIEF SHCHEFARY AND MES. MADNESS.

(Kingston, December 29 and 30
(Opening New Clindel).

(Copening New Clindel).

(Watchingth).

(Watchingth).

nany. LT. COLONEL & MRS. CHANDLES Toronto Temple, December 38, ERICADIER HARCHAVE

WATCH NIGHT SERVICES-TORONTO. WATCH NIGHT SERVICES—TONONTO.

The Temple, Colonel and Mrs. Parliament, Major and Mrs. Müller.

Maidment.

Mest Toronto, Colonel and Mrs. Miscer, Major and Mrs. Phillips.

West Toronto, L., Major Creighton, Riverfale, Srafi-Captain and Mrs.

McAmmond.

REST AFTER TOIL. Death of Once Well-Known Officer.

McGec. Our comrade's health had been failing for some years, and she passed away in her sleep. Full of good works up to the last the bright influence of her lile will be a treasured memory to Salvationists in many parts of the battlefield. Among those in Canada who thank God for her example is Mrs. Brigadier Walker, who was stationed with the

WALLACEBURG'S HALL

BRIGADIER RAWLING.

MATOR AND MRS. MOORE

STAFF-CAPTAIN ARNOUD

St. Catharines, January 10 and 11.

STAFF CAPTAIN AND MRS.

nes. January 3. 4. 1013

Kingston, December 27 and 28.

MAJOR BARR, Halifax I., December 31.

BLOSS, Riverdale, January 4

ADJUTANT BYERS, Hallfax II., December 31.

Re-opened by Major Morris.
The te-opening services of the Vallaceburg Citadel were conducted by Major Morris, assisted by the Chatham Band. The weather was very much against us, and when we say that nine open-air meetings, he-aides four inside meetings, were held Death of Once Well-Known Officer. The British "War Cry" announces the sudden death of Mrs. Maynard Hare, who will be remembered in The Army as Staff-Captain Maggie successfully in a snowstorm, and in successfully in a snowstorm, and in a temperature that caused the Bandsmen to go into the hotels to thaw out their instruments, some-thing of the determined spiril shown by the men can be seen.

Maior Morris ably piloted every-

Christmas "Cry" Soles: Adjt. Cavender (Sault Ste. Marie), 1,350; Adjt. Merritt (Winnipeg I.), 3,500; Adjt. Hiscock (St. John's I.), 750.

Ingersoll, Ont. Ingerson, Ont.
The week-end meelings, November 29th and 30th, were conducted by Captain H. Dray, of Toronto. Good crowds autended all meetings. On the following Tunsday night. On the following funrsday night, a lantern service was given by Ensigh Wright, entitled "The Light of the World," The Rev. Mr. Mc-Leod of Embro was present and helped in the meeting.

Are You Going To the Great International Congress, which takes place in London (Eng.), commencing on THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1914.

You should apply at once to the IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT who are now in a position to give information as to sailings, rates, and other particulars.

WE CAN ARRANGE YOUR BOOKING

Right from your residence to Lo don and return; either first, second, oh third class, and on any line of steamers. All anquiries should be addressed to LIE T COLONEL TUP

Staff-Captain at Bristal I. (in the thing in connection with the week-old Circus days) and Oldham I. end. Offerings amounted to nearly they were comrades to the end, one hundred dollars.

one hundred dollars.
Captain F. Martin, who has been here collecting for the renovation fund, rendered able assistance in the meetings. Captain and Mrs. Louis Smith are the Officers.

FIELD SECRETARY'S EASTERN CAMPAIGN.

(Continued from Page 6.) the close of the meeting, one soul, came forward for salvation.

On Saturday morning the Colonel, On Saturday morning the Golonel, accompanied by Major Taylor, tookhis departure for Charlotterown in the St. John Division, and although his visit to the Halifax Division is over, he has left-blessing behind, and we are all better and stronger-horance of his presence and his stirling messages.

TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

There being no ordinary edition of "The War Cry" during the week of issue of the Christmas number, of issue of the Christmas number, the present, "War Cry" contains an unusually large number of Corp reports, which, owing too limits, of space, have lad to be considerably contlemed. The Editor also regient that a number of reports and other communications have had, unworld, ably to be field over III next work.

WE ARE Looking for You

READ THIS

To Parenta Relatives, and Friends: To Parente, Rabritos, and Friends.

We will search for industry prisons any part of the plot industry prisons any part of the plot industry prisons and children, or increase in discovery processes. The prison of the prison of

EMPORMATION UNCENTLY WANTED

5781. PROUD, JUHN, called ge 10 or 60, medjum height, gro into syes, married; director of a r ampany; missing 25 years; last a cranton, Pennsylvania, USA. common martined direction of a rathwas common martined affection of a rathwas securation. Prenafform for AAA overship and the common martined affection of the common martined affection of the common martined and the common

76. THOMPSON, LANDSAY, Scotch, to Canada 30 years ago from Apple of the Canada 30 years ago from Apple of the Canada supposed to have run a sec. Air. A. Thompson Apple by

Herbermer how an Econto some less and the season of the se

Picton's New Hall

CHIEF SECRETARY, WITH BRIGADIER RAWLING, LEADS DEDIGATORY SERVICES—THE EDITOR CONDUCTS THE FILST WEEK-END MEETINGS—FIVE SEEKERS.

the First-Methodist Church; Rev. J. A. Shaver, B.D., of St. Andrew's, and Rev. A. K. Seott, of the Baptist Church, gave addresses which were in each instance marked by appreciative recognition of the important place The Salvation Army fills in the world's work, Speeches by Mr. C. B. Allison Mr.

H. B. Bristol, and Mr. German Williams, while informally spon-taneous, were both characteristic of taneous, were both characteristic of the speakers and entirely to the purpose. Each in his own way hore testimony to the influence for good in the community of Army efforts, and automorphic for thing though the completion of this much-needed. comfortable Quarters, where the work could be earried on to greater Army staff who had managed the details of its building, and also to the town as well

It was generally regretted that owing to illness, Commissioner Rees could not be present, but he Rees could not be present, but he was well and capably represented by Colonel Maidment, whose strong, foreible, and inspiring words could not fail in leaving a deep impression on the hearts of those who heard him. His expressions of grateful-ness to the Christian people of the town whose practical sympathy re-gardless of church distinction, had made the construction of this entire factory huilding an accomplished fact was very sincere, and he thanked carnestly every one who had in any way contributed to the success of the undertaking.

Brigadier Rawling, Major Moore,

Captain Ruston, and other Officers had important parts in the service, and their addresses were always timely.

The evening service drew a large and interested crowd, and beside The saving of souls, the key in the closed opened, and the place dedicated to Army Officers present who gave interested addresses, Mr. Robert Davison, Mr. F. Newman, and Mr. humanity,
The fternoon's programme in the

The literanon's programme in the Hall was in the hands of Mr. Milton Adam. Mayor, who presided with the expathetic tactfulness for which he is noted. C. C. Spencer spoke briefly.

The new "Chadel" only just completed, hailt of red brick, with stone cooing and windows frames, presents a very attractive appearance, and conveniently located in the cen-tre of the town, is well suited to the undience included a number The undience included a number of the business men, whose helpful liberates counted for much in the make possible this building under-taking. The Rev. W. H. Emsley, of needs for which it is intended Captain Ruston, who has been in charge of the local contingent for a couple of years, has not only the loyal support and confidence of his Atmy comrades, but has rained the sincere esteem of the citizens gen-

Surely (concludes the "Times") the world is getting to realize what a great debt humanity owes to those devoted Soldiers under The Salvation Army Flag.

ing in cumection with the opening of the Hall, says:

of the Hall, says:—
One of the greatest forces in the world to-day is the work of The Salvation Army, Kings, rulers, and men in power and authority everywhere throughout Christendom, as they witness the influence for the uplift witness the influence for the uplift of humanity exerted by The Army, join in testifying to its oscfulness. While every devout soul is enriched by The Army, its special mission is to help there must who man the help. It is indeed the Good Samari-lan of modern life, ministering to the physical and social needs of the the physical and social needs of the needy with the Christ spirit, and then pointing and, leading to the One who supplies all needs. The spirit of The Army is the spirit of service and that spirit is exemplified service and that spirit is exemplified in its work.

For the week-end meetings, which were conducted by the Editor of "The War Gry," Soldiers and visitors drove in for miles from the outlying district. The Mayor (Mr. Milton Adams) and the Rev. L. F. Barber were present on Saturday evening, and the Rev. Afred Young (Society of Friends, Wellington) spoke on Sunday night, when the spore on Sunday night, when the Hall was erowded. During the morning open-air the Brigadier vis-ited Sister Mrs. Alva Predericks, who is one of Canada's first Army converts. She is regrettably such a sufferer with rheumatism as to be unable to attend the meetings, im-less conveyed thither. But she was, much to her delivit, present at the opening of the Hall.

In the afternoon, when the Editor
(Continued on Page 14.)

Pictor's Fine Little Citadel.

CHAPTER II.

(says the Pictor

The afternoon service as ive in its appealing simpli-portance to members of that carnest Organization, and also of sincere in-serest to all others who are in hearty erest to an others was are in nearty sympathy with them in their Christ

Cantain Ruston, Picton.

eity: and the absence of form and eeremony usually 2550eiated with similar events, appeared to be in keeping with the unpretentiously artistic constructive details of this house of worship itself.

house of worship itself.

Following the singing of "All hall the power of Jesus name" by the crowd of Salvationists and others gathered on the payement hefore

the main outrance and a short carnest prayer by the Chief Secretary, Colored Maidment, of Toronto, that the I wine Master's presence might go before them into the building and make it indeed a sanctuary for the

TOCK ARMSTRONG.

N the brave days of old, when the challenging war-horns of Scottish chiefs rang among the Boruer fulls, the name of John Armstrong of Gilnochie, warrior, patric, and freehouter, bold spirit of a sold and hardy race, was a sound that both thrilled his own clan with price and struck terror into :: enemy's camp. The Armstrongs were one of the reat Amilies of the Border, and Gilne tie Castle, the stronghold of other he Castle, the stronghold of fightist lock, may still be seen in the villay of the Esk, its great brown cables rising above the surrounder woods in silent witness to the war storms of which it was then the vite. For more than four hands years it has withstood the force I the west wind that sweeps impo ing even in its decay.

OUR NEW SERIAL STORY.

Three Gideons.

The Racy Story of a Canadian Officer's Experiences, With Fascinating Glimpses into the Past,

[Summary-Grandfather Gideon and his wife, settled in their paramazy—transature trieven and in sure, settice in their re-mote Ontario farmstead, mistake Sunday for Saturday, and, a -few-hours later discovering their error, keep also Monday as Sunday in order to even things up. They are valued singers in the beakwoods chul-life in Gildeon's home is described muder the heading, "God and Love"

"the wild Armstrongs of Liddes date," and one of the greatest feuds of three ancient times was that between the Armstrongs and Grahams, arising chiefly from jealousy of each other's arength. The quirrel was long and biner, and all hopes of a poceful seriement hopes of a poceful seriement has greed that after the property of the prop

As early as 1525 we read of punitive expeditions being sent against "the wild Amstrongs of Lidds-taids," and one of the greatest feed of three ancient times was that be-offered the content times was that besides, the Armstfongs were declared sides, the Armstrongs were declared ultimate victors.

Famous Jock was of the noblest type of Border chief. He was held in the highest esteem by his own clansmen. His word was his bond, and even in the midst of uproar and shughter he was, we are told, as slaughter he was, we are told, as were also many other chiefs, noted for his bravery, fidelity, and Nothing, indeed, was more re-markable than the raiders' scrupulous fidelity and Irust in the pledged word.

"Their word was as true as steel," we read; "and though they would plantler without computation, yet would they never betray any man who had trusted in them for all the gold in France or Scotland.

gold in France or Scotland.

"When any member of a cleu was found guilty of the offence of irreking pledge, the punishment was stern and mercites. On such occasions the injuried party usually appicared at the meeting of the Warden's Court, or any other large assemblage of the people, with the gold of the accused fixed upon the point of a long lance. This was considered the greatest justed to point of a long lance. This was considered the greatest insult to the whole clan, who, on being satis-fied of the culprit's guilt, put him stain of the emperes gint, put and stain of baseness from their name."

So that it is not pleasant to reflect (Continued on Page 14.)